

UNITED STATES MOVES TO PROTECT AMERICANS AS THOUSANDS FLEE FROM THEIR HOMES IN CHINA

Coolidge Outlines Issues in Mexican Quarrel

AMERICAN RIGHTS TO OWN PROPERTY IS MOOTED POINT

President Takes Position That Only Question Is Whether Property Shall Be Confiscated.

SETTLEMENT WOULD MEAN END OF CRISIS

White House Believes That American Public Does Not Realize Property Rights Issue.

Washington, January 21.—(AP)—The Robinson resolution proposing arbitration of the oil and land controversy with Mexico was approved today by the senate foreign relations committee by a 13-0 vote.

This was the main development of the day at the capital in the Mexican-Nicaraguan situation although at the white house it was reiterated that President Coolidge believes the American people do not understand the question at issue. Small collateral issues, in his opinion, have confused the public mind and obscured the greater one.

It was made clear on behalf of President Coolidge that in lending a favorable ear to the suggestion of arbitration there never had been any question in his mind as to the necessity of affording full protection to American property rights.

Resolution Amended.

The Robinson resolution, before receiving the committee's approval, was amended to give emphasis to the duty of the government to guarantee such protection. Sponsored by Senator Robinson, the democratic leader, it was acted upon favorably after announcement at Mexico City that the Calles government approved the principle of arbitration.

Secretary Kellogg has announced that he would welcome an expression from the senate on the subject and also that he had been endeavoring to apply the principle to an adjustment of the dispute with Mexico. So far, there have been no indications, however, that a move toward arbitration has been initiated by either the Washington or Mexican government.

In the senate during the day Senator Norris, republican, Nebraska, offered a resolution calling upon the state department for information bearing upon American claims to Mexican properties.

Data Is Demanded.

Under the Norris proposal the state department would be called on for the names of all Americans owning concessions in Mexico who have accepted the terms of the Mexican land law, and of those who have refused.

At the white house, it was said that the president holds the view that the only question between the United States and Mexico on which the Washington government intends to be unmovable is whether American property can be confiscated. Smaller issues would offer no difficulties of solution, he feels, once the fundamental question of the sanctity of vested rights is disposed of.

All of America's diplomatic efforts with Mexico in the past and her difficulties with that nation, it was added, arose from the firm intention of the United States government to secure proper safeguards for American property.

The president feels if only the

Pastor Declares Victim Had Threatened Him and Claims He Shot in Self Defense.

Courtroom, Austin, Texas, January 21.—(AP)—After Dr. J. Frank Norris, fundamentalist Baptist pastor, told his story of the killing of D. E. Chipps in the pastor's office last July 17, the defense rested in the Norris murder trial here today.

Defense witnesses have occupied five and a half days in presenting to the jury Norris' evidence on his plea of self-defense.

The state promptly began its rebuttal at 3:30 p. m., its first rebuttal witness being Dr. Clarence E. Wisecup, a dentist of Thorndale, Texas, who corroborated a part of Mrs. Roxie Parker's testimony. Mrs. Parker was the state's star witness.

A preacher's tears mingled with the tears of the jurors as Norris ended the defense case with his personal story of the tragedy that occurred in his office last July, when Chipps went there to protest against Norris' attacks on Mayor H. C. Meacham, of Fort Worth.

During his narrative of the actual killing, Norris wept and was under such apparent emotion he told his story with difficulty.

He testified he shot Chipps because he believed Chipps was about to kill him. He described how Chipps came to the office in an angry mood after he had telephoned he was coming up to kill him.

He shot, he said, only after Chipps had wheeled about and was coming at him with his hand on his hip pocket.

The pastor held a handkerchief to his face at times. He had a cough and his voice at times was husky. The packed courtroom was tense during the trial.

State to Close Today.

The state probably will close tomorrow, but the attorneys do not expect to start arguments until Monday. There is a possibility of lengthy legal debate over instructions to the jury on "apparent danger" and similar points raised in the trial.

The state's opening rebuttal witness, Dr. Wisecup, a dentist of Thorndale, Texas, formerly of Taylor, Texas, said he was on his way home from Denver and had stopped in Fort Worth on July 17. He was in front of the Searchlight office when he learned of the killing of Chipps. He had gone there because he was interested in meeting the broadcaster of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram radio station. He started from his hotel to the newspaper and on the way saw the broadcasting towers on Norris' church and thought it was the radio office he was in search of.

Near the church he saw a woman cross the street.

"I saw the lady almost run down

POLICE CHANGES HALTED FOR TIME, POOLE DECLARES

Fourteen Plainclothes Officers Go Back to Uniforms; Lieutenant Shaw To Aid Poole.

While members of the Atlanta police department Friday still were in a haze as a result of the police shake-up in assignment of men, First Assistant Chief of Police A. Lamar Poole, head of the newly reorganized bureau, announced that reorganization is complete, at least for the present.

And with this terse comment he and other high officers of the department began preparation for initiation of a program of strict law enforcement.

Reorganization steps Friday sent 14 former members of the plainclothes squad back to uniforms, created a traffic enforcement body, a vagrancy squad and placed the prohibition enforcement unit directly under supervision of Chief Poole. This was the most complete change since abolition of the detective department in 1923, and has been expected momentarily since election of Poole to his old post at a special called meeting Wednesday night of the police committee. All changes were effective Friday.

Instead of stripping officers of their authority, Chief James L. Beavers and Poole, acting under instructions of the police committee to "run the department yourselves and get results," placed each in a responsible post and reorganization means that the department is better able to cope with lawlessness and crime than ever before, law enforcement observers said.

Holcomb Traffic Chief.

Captain A. J. Holcomb, former head of the plainclothes squad, is head of the newly organized traffic bureau, according to the special order issued about noon Friday by Chief Beavers. This branch formerly was directed by two lieutenants, Captain Holcomb will have complete charge of enforcement of ordinances affecting vehicular traffic in Atlanta and will make a "continuous drive" to prevent accidents as a result of violations.

Uniform Police Lieutenant T. D. Shaw was placed in the detective department, and Lieutenant F. O. Sturdivant was assigned to take Shaw's place.

Chiefs Beavers and Poole Friday morning held a closed-door conference

ECONOMY POLICY FOR NAVY SCORED BY SENATOR HALE

Program Will Kill National Defense, Maine Republican Warns Members of Senate.

Washington, January 21.—Economy will kill the national defense, Senator Hale, Maine, republican, today warned the senate in urging adoption of the navy appropriation bill, which includes increased funds for three additional cruisers and more aircraft.

In taking a definite stand for a larger navy, Senator Hale bolted from the administration ranks and directly opposed President Coolidge and the budget bureau, who advocate postponement on construction of the additional cruisers.

"The budget bureau cannot run the army and navy," Hale declared, "and any further economies can only be brought about by a decrease of our military strength."

Insurance Policies.

The army and navy are the insurance policies of the nation, he told the senate.

"Anyone can economize by cutting down on his insurance, but we have no sympathy with the man who has followed this course when calamity comes and he is wiped out."

Hale also opposed the president when he declared that the time was not ripe for another limitation of arms conference such as advocated by Coolidge.

"Within a few years we must necessarily come to a time when great expenditures in addition to those we are now making confront the navy," Hale declared. "It is vital to us that, before we come to that time, as far as possible, we establish the navy up to the full strength which our policy demands, so that when a new program comes it shall not have to be met at the same time as the natural replacement program."

Rejected in House.

The three additional cruisers amendment was rejected by the house after one of the bitterest house fights of the session with such prominent republican leaders as Speaker Longworth, Ohio; Robert Butler, Pennsylvania; Beeghly, Ohio, majority whip, and Britten, Illinois, deserting the administration ranks.

The senate committee immediately replaced the three cruisers in the bill and added appropriations to carry out a huge aviation program.

Squandering of Millions Charged to "Pa" Ferguson

HUSBAND DOMINATED "MA" SAYS COMMITTEE

Austin, Tex., January 21.—(AP)—Governor Miriam A. Ferguson was merely a figurehead during her two year term as chief executive of Texas, while her husband, former Governor James E. Ferguson, practically usurped the office for political favoritism and financial gain, an investigating committee declared in a report to the legislature today.

The report charged that Ferguson, who was impeached as governor in 1917, dispensed pardons, squandered millions of dollars of state highway funds, collected tribute from persons seeking state contracts and rewarded his friends at the expense of the state, while Mrs. Ferguson rubber-stamped his actions.

Report of Committee.

No recommendations were made by the committee, but it reported:

"It is our opinion that the only recourse under our existing laws is by impeachment for the wrongs done to our state by the chief executive under the domination of her husband."

As Mrs. Ferguson retired as governor last Tuesday, she is immune from impeachment. The committee held that as Ferguson was a private citizen there was no law to govern his activities.

No action was taken on the report. The house ordered it printed in the house journal.

The committee was appointed at a

American Minister Ordered To Return to Peking; Riots Reported in Many Sections.

BY UNITED NEWS.

Impelled by the increasing menace of anti-foreign riots, Americans by the thousands were evacuating their concessions in China Friday night while the administration in Washington moved swiftly to protect American lives in the danger zone.

Sixty-five American warships were in Chinese waters or en route and the navy department has ordered additional concentration of marines at San Diego and the Philippine Island ports as an emergency measure in what Washington officials described as the gravest threat to foreign lives in China since the Boxer rebellion.

American refugees arriving at Manila said the American legation at Peking had ordered all Americans in China to proceed at once to the protection of American consulates or leave the country.

Minister Ordered to Peking.

American Minister MacMurray, en route to Washington, was ordered back to Peking to take charge of protecting foreigners against Chinese rioters.

Meanwhile Chairman Porter of the house foreign affairs committee in Washington proposed abolition of extraterritorial rights in China, and the white house announced that this country's part in the execution of agreements with China would be continued.

The Chinese evacuation—involving 12,000 Americans and large numbers of British and French—was regarded as one of the greatest movements of its kind in years. The government announced that commercial ships would be employed in the task of carrying Americans to safety in event that warships proved inadequate in the face of the increasing dangers.

Washington, January 21.—Alarmed over the danger of massacre that hangs over the heads of 12,000 Americans in China, the United States took drastic action today and was prepared even to evacuate the entire American citizenship of the country to a place of safety.

Warships are being mobilized and reserve craft are being held in readiness. The U. S. marine detachment at Guam and French troops in the Philippines today are being alerted in case of emergency. This detachment numbers 250 men. American Minister MacMurray has been ordered

Friday Heat Broke Record For January

While Atlanta Basks in Spring Warmth, Southwest Faces Cold Wave.

While Atlanta revels Friday in a temperature of 75.2—unusual for mid-winter and the highest thermometer reading for January in the history of the local weather bureau—cold blasts from the icy north were sweeping down upon the southwest, and Associated Press dispatches told of extreme cold in Montana, Wyoming and other states in the Rocky Mountain region.

Springlike weather will continue today in Atlanta, in sharp contrast to warnings of zero and sub-zero temperatures predicted for the middle west and the Rocky Mountain states, according to the weather bureau.

"It was the highest mark reached during the month of January since the local weather bureau was established in 1870," Mr. von Herrmann said, "and passed the high mark of 74.8 degrees, reached January 12, 1890."

The lowest temperature Friday was 55 degrees, it was stated, and temperatures today likely are to range between 54 and 74 degrees with very little changes from those of Friday, it was stated.

Probable light showers are expected

BRITAIN URGES FEWER COLLEGES

Consolidation Only Way To Raise Standards, Tech Head Tells State College Association.

Consolidation of higher institutions of learning was urged Friday night by Dr. M. L. Brittain, president of Georgia Tech, as the sole solution to raising standards of universities and colleges in Georgia. He declared that curbing the "weak and spineless" policy of permitting a multiplicity of colleges is one of the outstanding educational needs of the state today.

Surveying the state educational system as a whole in an address to the Georgia Association of Colleges, which opened its eleventh annual session Friday night at the Henry Grady hotel, Dr. Brittain also called attention to the fact that Georgia stands fifth in the list of states in percentage of illiteracy. He placed a large part of the responsibility of "bettering these conditions on the colleges."

"During the last three or four years," he said, "we have seen somewhat more liberality to our state colleges by the legislature. This has been counterbalanced, however, by taking much of it for work of less than college grade and a weak and spineless policy with regard to the multiplication of new institutions."

Three Key Institutions.

"We have been trying to support more institutions through legislative appropriations than any state in the union. If this state ever is to move forward and possess the respect of other commonwealths, it must be through the adequate maintenance of the three great departments of the university—the liberal arts branch and agricultural college at Athens, the

GEORGE TO ASK AID FOR FARMERS

Senator Seeks To Include Georgia Farmers in Relief Measure Offered in Senate.

Washington, January 21.—(Special.)—Senator George announced today that he would offer an amendment to the Norbeck-Johnson bill so as to include the farmers in Georgia in its provisions if that measure reaches the senate.

The original bill calls for $8,000,000 to furnish means by which farmers in depressed agricultural areas may obtain seed with which to plant their crops. Of this amount, $1,500,000 would be used for loans to South Carolina farmers to buy fertilizer and $500,000 to Florida fruit growers to rehabilitate orchards damaged by the hurricane.

The original $6,000,000 would be for making loans to farmers in drought areas of the northwest, principally Montana, North and South Dakota and Minnesota. The measure has been approved by the house agricultural committee.

OLD MAID WILLS $90,000 TO MAN KIND TO HER CATS

(By Leased Wire of The Constitution.)

Chicago, January 21.—Because Le was kind to a flock of cats owned by an elderly maiden lady, H. J. Streiber, superintendent of the Chicago Anti-Cruelty society, is given a bequest of $90,000 in her will, filed today.

Miss Anna R. Wills was the donor and her estate was admitted to probate today.

She formerly lived at the Keshore hotel. She had no relatives, as far as known and few intimate friends. Her chief concern was the dozen fine cats, Persians and Angoras. When she was ill and unable to care for them she would place them in custody of Mr. Streiber. His uniform kindness brought its reward in her will.

Magic Ford Riches Tale Told by Former Tourist

SHOESTRING NETTED HALF MILLION DIVIDEND

Detroit, January 21.—The strange exuberance of an American tourist in Geneva, Switzerland, on a balm night in 1913 was explained at the Ford tax trial Friday by John W. Anderson, the tourist. Anderson said he had just learned that his $5,000 shoestring investment had returned him half a million dollars in a single dividend.

The investor's account on the witness stand of the golden reward of the few who first cast their lot with Henry Ford was told as Aladdin might have recounted it, first rubbing the magic lamp.

"While seated at dinner that night," said Anderson, who is a lawyer, "there came a cable with the two words, 'five hundred' meaning $500,000. I told Mrs. Anderson to put her hat on."

"A German band was playing in the square."

Anderson beamed. The occasion called for hearty music, and other things.

"He walked over closer," he went on, "to hear the band play."

"I bought a bottle of champagne."

The court, attorneys and spectators were listening to this sworn-and-subscribed-to fairy tale like children in a nursery. They burst into laughter at the champagne.

"I toasted Mrs. Anderson," the witness continued.

"I toasted everyone in the company."

"If a Ford car had rolled through Geneva that night I would probably have hugged it."

Anderson sighed and an answering sigh swept the courtroom.

"I was very, very happy," the hero of the tale finished simply.

His recital was full of close-ups of the poor and unknown Henry Ford, who had an idea that automobiles

The Bill of Fare

If you eat regularly at the same restaurant or boarding house you soon observe that they have a regular schedule—certain things on certain days. You tire of this sameness soon, but when you change you just run into another schedule of sameness.

The housewife who devises attractive and appetizing menus for her family encounters a big task to avoid the "sameness" that dulls appetite and promotes indigestion.

But if she reads the grocery, market and produce advertisements in The Constitution she has the world market from which to select her food articles. As the prices are quoted on everything she can observe economy and at the same time arrange appetizing combinations as she reads the advertisements. The last list of articles offered in the advertisements makes it easy to avoid that "same thing over again."

CHAPLIN TO PAY GOVERNMENT TAX

New York, January 21.—(AP)—The government's claims of income tax on the money Charles Spencer Chaplin was paid by film fans are on the point of being settled.

Thomas J. Crawford, head of the civil division of United States Attorney Buckner's office, emerged from conference today to inform reporters that the claims "are on the eve of adjustment."

Yesterday the bureau of internal revenue filed liens for $1,550,000 against Chaplin, and the corporation that bears his name. The claims covered the years 1918 to 1919, and 1921 to 1925, for which periods the government contends, Chaplin did not pay income tax as assessed. Liens amounting to approximately $1,000,000 previously were filed in California. Both sums include penalties as well as assessments.

Alleged to have been warned of impending liens, the comedian was reported to have withdrawn $500,000 from two banks yesterday just before that sum could be tied up.

LITA GRAY'S FATHER IS MARRIED AGAIN.

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

Ponca City, Okla., January 21.—While Lita Gray Chaplin is striving to untangle herself from her first matrimonial venture, her father, Robert E. MacMurray, Wichita printer, today blithely began his second honeymoon.

Last night he married Mrs. Nella Benjamin in the home of the bride here.

Mr. MacMurray was divorced 16 years ago from his first wife, now Mrs. Lillian Spicer, of Los Angeles. At the time of his daughter's marriage to the film comedian, Mr. Mac-

Murray was pessimistic about the outcome of the match, which he laid to scheming by the girl's mother. He recently refused to comment on the divorce action brought by Mrs. Chaplin, saying he knew nothing about her family affairs, not having seen her since 1922.

LITA WILL AWAIT CHAPLIN'S MOVE.

Los Angeles, January 21.—(AP)—Attorneys for Lita Gray Chaplin, 18-year-old wife who is suing Charles S. Chaplin for divorce and division of property, are to await Chaplin's next move. They announced this today when information came from Washington that the internal revenue department probably would decline to recognize Mrs. Chaplin's appeal for alimony money awarded by the courts.

The money, which is in California banks under Chaplin's name, is being kept there by the government under liens which claim $1,500,000 due on income taxes.

Mrs. Chaplin's attorneys pointed out that Chaplin must file a $1,000,000 bond to effect release of his properties and cash from the government's liens or forfeit them, and that in either case the film comedian might shortly obtain the $14,400 alimony awarded her.

Before returning to their homes in San Francisco, Gavin McNab and Nat Schmulowitz, attorneys representing the Chaplin interests, said they would return next week to take further action against the receivership into which the film comedian has been thrown. Information as to their detailed plans was declined.

Affidavits to support the bill of exceptions filed with the appeal from the receivership were being prepared by Chaplin's legal staff.

COOLIDGE DEFINES MEXICAN ISSUE

American public could hardly see the fundamental problem there would be criticism of the administration's course.

Reed's Position.

Senator Reed, democrat of Missouri, a democratic member of the foreign relations committee and one of the three who opposed giving approval to the Robinson resolution, said later that he had done so on the grounds that it might prove an obstacle to the administration in the carrying on of negotiations with Mexico. Senator Edge, republican, New Jersey, said he believed in leaving foreign relations to the executive and state departments. The third opponent of the resolution was Senator McLean, republican, Connecticut.

While there was practically no developments here today in the Nicaraguan situation, an announcement was made that Rear Admiral Latimer, commander of the special service squadron in Nicaraguan waters, had sailed for Panama to get food and fuel for his flagship, the cruiser, Rochester. Admiral Latimer then will proceed through the canal to the west coast of Nicaragua.

POSSIBLE ARBITRATION CENTER OF INTEREST.

Mexico City, January 21.—(AP)—With public interest centered on possible arbitration of differences between Mexico and the United States over the new oil and land laws, a new angle was added to the situation today when all foreign land owners in Mexico became theoretically Mexican citizens as far as questions concerning their property is concerned.

Today the time expired for foreigners to register a declaration of their land ownership to the municipal authorities in accordance with article 17 of the Mexican constitution and the alien land law enacted under it.

The law has been in effect one year but a period of grace expiring today was granted to foreigners to file their declaration. The law contains a constitutional article which permits only native-born Mexicans to own land in Mexico, but gives the Mexican government power to grant property rights to foreigners who renounce the right of appeal to their home governments in case of disputes.

Right of Appeal Lost.

It is understood that registration under the law will be construed by the Mexican government as acceptance of its provision, including the renunciation of the right of appeal, and that failure to register also automatically removes the right of appeal. Thus, pending future court decisions or government decrees, the right of appeal seems to be lost in either case.

The extent to which foreigners filed declarations throughout the country is not known, and it may be some time before the reports will be available.

Best-informed foreign observers in Mexico City and government circles are not expected to expect any immediate developments under the new law. From time to time in the future, as individual complaints may develop, it is expected that the government will meet each particular case and will demonstrate just what practical outcome the new law will have.

Under another law, which also went into effect today, foreigners are forbidden to direct ownership of land within 50 kilometers of the Mexican coast and 100 kilometers of the inland borders.

PEAK PASSED IN REBELLION.

Mexico City, January 21.—(AP)—Adalberto Tejeda, minister of interior, is quoted by the newspaper Excelsior as declaring that the "Catholic rebellion" has passed its peak.

The Catholic clergy, he said, made a fundamental mistake in attempting to organize such a movement. The uprising now being put down by the federal troops were the maximum efforts of which the clergy were capable, he added.

The political and social defeat of the clergy was long ago attained; logically, the armed rebellion was due to failure. However, if the army had not controlled the situation and the revolution, instead of being stamped out had gained in vigor, the world would have witnessed all the revolutionary forces rush forth to the support of the government.

Evidence of this, the minister said, was seen in numerous demonstrations by the peasants, workers and liberal elements on behalf of President Calles throughout the country.

COURTS GRANT OIL WRITS.

Mexico City, January 21.—(AP)—Tampico dispatches say the district court has granted provisional writs of amparo to the Atlantic Gulf & Western, Transcontinental, Mexican, Sinclair and Alex Smith Oil companies against the new petroleum law.

Reports received from Mexico City are that 24 important oil concerns have applications for amparo pending in various district courts.

An amparo can take the form of a mandamus or an injunction.

Mexico City dispatches Wednesday night said the fourth district court had granted provisional writs of amparo to El Aguila, the Compania Unida de Petroleo and the Compania Biencia y Inversiones. These writs ordered the Mexican department of industry, commerce and labor to suspend all proceedings under the new oil law for 12 hours while the court investigated the case.

CALLES TO ACCEPT INDIANS' SURRENDER.

Mexico City, January 21.—(AP)—Sonora is to enter another period of peace, President Calles having decided to accept the unconditional surrender of the rebellious Yaqui Indians in that state. He has given orders to incorporate in the Mexican army the Yaqui warriors who are unwilling to give up their arms.

General Amaro, minister of war and navy, telegraphed General Manzo, military commander at Sonora, that the government will accept unconditional surrender and will afford full protection for their lives.

While Adolfo de la Huerta was provisional president of Mexico an agreement was reached between the government and the Yaqui Indians whereby they received monthly pay, being considered members of the army. This agreement will virtually continue in effect, although from now on the warriors will be on active service instead of idling in the mountains.

The Yaqui Indians offered their submission to the government after many months of warfare, for the most part of the guerrilla type. They gave up the struggle because of famine owing to the effective military cordon which had been thrown around their mountain strongholds.

EXPULSED BISHOP ARRIVES IN GUATEMALA.

Guatemala City, Guatemala, January 21.—(AP)—Bishop Pascual Diaz, of Tabasco, expelled from Mexico, has arrived in Guatemala City and is emphatic in his declaration that the Mexican clergy is not taking part in revolutionary activity.

The bishop, who was secretary of the Mexican Catholic episcopate, which has been charged by the government with instigating rebellion, accepted his expulsion "with Christian and patriotic resignation."

"There is no doubt that a state of rebellion exists among the Mexican people in defense of their freedom of conscience," he declared, "for to withhold this freedom lays the country open to slipping backward. But, as bishop and citizen, I reprove revolution."

Bishop Diaz said he was a Mexican born in Guadalajara. He expects to go to Havana and thence to the United States, perhaps Chicago.

MEXICAN BASE IS CHANGED.

Managua, Nicaragua, January 21.—(AP)—Guatemala, through its minister of state, has again offered to mediate with a view to bringing peace between the two factions in Nicaragua, the conservatives under President Diaz and the liberals under President Sacasa. The conservative government has refused the suggestion with the explanation that Guatemala was used as a "revolutionary base by the liberals and Mexicans."

Major General Bartolome Viquez, commanding the conservative troops near Chinandega and Telles, has arrived at Managua, and says that within a few days he will make a concentrated drive "to break the backbone of the revolution in the interior."

He declared that owing to the pressure of his army the liberals were suffering every day, coming out only to steal food and cattle.

AMERICAN SUPERVISION OF ELECTIONS FAVORED.

Puerto Cabezas, Nicaragua, January 21.—(AP)—Although declining to accept most of the terms for a peaceful solution of the Nicaraguan internecine warfare suggested by President Adolfo Diaz at Managua, Dr. Juan Sacasa, the liberal leader, looks with favor upon that portion of the Diaz proposals suggesting American supervision of the presidential elections of 1928.

Dr. Sacasa, stating that he had no official knowledge of this part of the peace proposals, said that such a plan of supervision would suit him. He added, however, that possibly it would be better that the supervision be conducted by the United States and representatives of the Latin-American nations signatory of the Washington pact.

"Peace with Diaz as thus far presented would be impossible because the country repudiates him and from the present state of war, anarchy would result," Dr. Sacasa said. "While I have accepted the recent Costa Rican mediation offer, Diaz has rejected it. In the further desire for an honorable peace, I have just accepted the offer of the good offices of the Guatemalan government received yesterday."

"This latter offer also has been refused by President Diaz on the ground that the liberals have used Guatemala as a base of operations."

Dispatches from Managua yesterday said that the peace proposals of President Diaz had been rejected in their entirety by Dr. Sacasa. The Diaz proposals included his own resignation in office until 1928 when free election would be held under American supervision. It also included an offer of the inclusion of liberals in executive and judicial posts and the appointment of a mixed claims commission to settle impartially all revolutionary claims.

NEW ATLANTA BANK TO OPEN DOORS SOON

Capitalization of the Piedmont Banking & Trust company is now assured and as soon as formalities can be completed and equipment installed the new bank will be open to the public, officials announced Friday.

The property at 10 Auburn avenue, which is occupied by the Southern Mortgage company, has been bought and the main branch of the bank will be established there. Another branch will be established on Peters street, where property has been leased.

The charter for the bank has been drafted and will be filed with state officials Monday. Contracts have been let for fixtures, vault and office equipment.

Management of the new institution will be in the hands of prominent Atlanta business men, headed by Walter A. Sims, who has just completed four years as mayor of Atlanta. He will be assisted by a board of directors of successful business men.

It was announced that the bank will apply for membership in the federal reserve system, thus giving federal as well as state supervision. Subscription books will be kept open until March 1. Organization offices are at 411 Norris building.

MACON COUNTY STARTS DIXIE ROAD PAVING

Macon, Ga., January 21.—(Special.)—Actual laying of the concrete was begun Tuesday on the first paving project ever undertaken by Macon county. The Dixie highway traverses Macon county a distance of 31 miles and the present project is a section of this highway.

The work is being done by the Whitely Construction company, of La Grange. Engineers of the company with a large force of labor have been here since December occupied with work preliminary to the paving and much of the grading is practically finished. It is believed that the project will be completed during the spring.

SUE SALVATION ARMY FOR CRASH INJURIES

Two $5,000 damage suits were filed Friday in Fulton superior court against the Salvation Army, Inc., by Ed Johnson and Guy Adams, occupants of a convict truck who were injured in a triple collision at the intersection of Rankin street and North Boulevard on January 17.

Two convicts were killed as the result of the crash in which the convict truck, a truck of the Salvation Army and a street car figured, and ten others were injured. Haynie Mathieson, Atlanta attorney, filed the suits in behalf of the petitioners.

FIGHT IS PLANNED FOR ASWELL MEASURE

Washington, January 21.—Substitution of the committee-rejected Curtis-Aswell farm relief bill for the McNary-Haugen measure will be attempted, on the floor of the house, Representative Aswell, Louisiana, democrat, told the house today.

"If you want farm relief now, and want to accomplish the things we have been talking about for five years, get behind my bill," Aswell advised.

BACHMAN NOW HEADS FREIGHT BUREAU BOARD

J. R. Bachman, secretary of the Atlanta Milling company, heads the new board of directors of the Atlanta Freight Bureau.

Freight bureau, according to an announcement by the organization Friday. Other officers elected at the annual board meeting are: John M. Cooper and Thomas R. Frazer, vice chairman; I. A. Hirschberg, treasurer; Harry T. Moore, secretary and assistant traffic manager.

Mr. Bachman is a former alderman for the twelfth ward and former treasurer of the bureau. Bolling Jones was elected to head the advisory board, the other members being Mr. Bachman, H. E. Choate, E. S. Papp, Ralph Rosenbaum and W. B. Willingham Sr.

The board of directors consists of O. P. Allen, J. R. Bachman, H. E. Choate, R. C. Clonts, F. B. Coleman, H. S. Collingsworth, J. M. Cooper, Beaumont Davidson, G. P. Dozier, T. R. Frazer, I. A. Hirschberg, G. M. Hope, W. C. Holleman, F. A. Hoyt, B. H. Jones, K. K. Kelly, J. R. Mobley, E. S. Papp, Jack Pappenhimer and others. The standing committee of the association will be announced following the next meeting of the board, to be held on February 9.

Casey Takes Office As Superintendent County Alms House

J. C. Casey, county policeman, assumed his new office as superintendent of the county alms house Friday after the Fulton county commission had indorsed an arrangement between him and County Policeman J. O. McCrary, who was appointed to the place about ten days ago.

REDMEN TO STAGE CONTEST OF TEAMS

Members of the Atlanta and North Georgia divisions of the Improved Order of Red Men will assemble at the wigwam, 88 Central street, at 8 o'clock tonight to participate in and watch the degree contest staged between the several tribes, it was announced Friday night.

TRENCH RATS ADD TO LOCAL MEMBERS

Between 15 and 20 veterans of the world war were initiated as members of Dugout No. 40, of the local trench rat organization Friday night at the Piedmont hotel. All the new members have distinguished themselves in some way through service for a fellow veteran.

COTTON WASTE MEN IN TWO-DAY MEETING

Featuring an informal gathering of approximately 75 cotton waste dealers from the southeastern states, who Friday opened a two-day session at the Baltimore hotel, was a banquet Friday night tendered the visitors by a group of Atlanta dealers.

DANCERS ENTERTAIN AT LEGION LUNCHEON

Entertainment by Hazel Jones and Janet Kelly, in the form of the latest dances, including black bottom, and other stage dances, was provided at the regular noon meeting of Atlanta post of the American Legion Friday at the Henry Grady hotel.

ATLANTA SUPPORT PLEDGED AIR MAIL

Assurances that Atlanta's intense interest in commercial aviation will mean solid support for the proposed New York-Atlanta air mail contract route were given Friday night to Harold F. Pitcairn, president of Pitcairn Aviation, Inc., at a chamber of commerce banquet at the Athletic club.

In a series of short addresses prominent Atlantans told Mr. Pitcairn and his associates, G. S. Childs, vice president, and J. G. Ray, operation manager, that this city and her business institutions will stand solidly behind the air mail company and furnish the business necessary to keep it going on a paying basis.

Atlanta is one of the most "air-minded" and fastest-growing cities he knows of, declared V. E. Chene, vice president of the Florida Airways corporation. The trio of visitors declared they are deeply impressed by what they have seen, both in the city and at Candler field.

Mr. Pitcairn said that no passengers will be carried on the contract route, at least, during the first part of the operation. Passenger travel may be developed later with the improvement of the service, he said.

Official welcome was given the visitors by Mayor I. N. Ragsdale and George W. West, president of the chamber of commerce. Councilman A. J. Orne presided as toastmaster. James A. Hollomon, of The Constitution, and Major John S. Cohen, of The Journal, spoke for the local newspapers, pledging support to the air mail movement.

In an address from the military standpoint, Major General Johnson Hagood, commandant of the fourth army corps area, pointed out that Atlanta occupies a successful position as a point of strategy for railroad, military and air mail operations. Military strategy points never change, he said, and Atlanta has been recognized long ago, he said, as a point of strategy.

W. B. Hartsfield, chairman of aviation for the city council, told of the development of Candler field. To have a lighted airway from New York to Atlanta will be a tremendous achievement for this city, he pointed out.

Following further conferences today between Mr. Pitcairn and his associates and local air mail enthusiasts, the visitors will leave Saturday morning, going north along the proposed contract route. They will stop at Gainesville and other points along the line to inspect landing field sites.

County Spends $400 On Trial of Alleged 70 Cents Purloiner

The trial of J. S. Reynolds, 29, of 846 White street, on charges of larceny in connection with the alleged theft of a 65-cent screwdriver and a 5-cent tin of ointment from local stores, caused the expenditure of approximately $400 by Fulton county, according to court attaches.

MICE LOSE GROUND

Enemies of Rodents Are Being Welcomed.

Bakersfield, Cal., January 21.—(AP) It's nice weather for ducks in the lowlands of Kern county, near here, but it's more interesting to the owls, hawks, buzzards, crows and other predatory birds because of the infestation of mice.

Visited by rain yesterday, the area became a fashionable place for birds to light. Scores of feathered enemies of mice took advantage of the rodent migration and feasted. The fact that some of their prey was dead, poisoned by grain soaked in a lethal solution, mattered not at all, and did not seem to have any effect on the birds.

Although no invitation has been issued to Chicago's noted pigeon-fed hawk, foes of mice in all forms are being welcomed. The battle against the little creatures is beginning to show on their numbers and the greatest job before the exterminators now is to wipe out their original home in the lower areas.

DRY AGENTS ACTIVE IN DAWSON COUNTY

Prohibition agents dealt a telling blow to the liquor traffic in Dawson county Wednesday when they arrested five men, confiscated three automobiles, and destroyed three stills, according to reports filed Friday in the office of W. T. Day, deputy administrator for Georgia.

Nearly all of the clean-up work was executed by Agents J. L. Kinney, W. M. Weaver and J. B. Wallace. In Dawson county on the same day they arrested Ernest Gravitt and Ernest White, of Cumming, in a roomer with three gallons of liquor. Guy Gilbert, of Cumming, in a coupe, with 17 gallons of liquor, and W. N. Barker and Fred Gresham, of East Point, in a touring car with 20 gallons of liquor, according to reports.

The agents destroyed a 50-gallon still and 2,400 gallons of still beer on one raid, and an incomplete still on another raid. On the same day, agents W. C. Allred and R. O. Hopkins destroyed a 50-gallon still and 3,000 gallons of beer in Dawson county.

LUDWIG VOGELSTEIN HEADS HEBREW UNION

Cleveland, Ohio, January 21.—(AP) Ludwig Vogelstein, of New York, was reelected chairman of an executive board of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations at the close of the thirteenth biennial convention here.

The National Federation of Temple Beth Shalom and Sisterhoods, allied organizations, ended their session today. The Temple Sisterhoods elected Mrs. J. Walter Freiberg, Cincinnati, president, and Mrs. Charles Cohen, Nashville, a vice president.

Two Citizens and Southern Officials Given Promotions

JOHN E. WALLACE.

Promotion of two employees was announced Friday by H. Lane Young, executive manager of the Atlanta office of the Citizens and Southern bank. John E. Wallace, who has been cashier of the Atlanta office, has been promoted to the position of deputy controller of the Citizens and Southern bank at large, with headquarters in Savannah. He will be succeeded as cashier by Eugene T. Johnson.

EUGENE T. JOHNSON.

The controller's department will have under its direct charge the coordination of all the offices of the Citizens and Southern bank as well as the duties which ordinarily devolve upon that department.

MEDIATION BOARD STILL WRESTLES WITH RAIL WAGES

Washington, January 21.—(AP)—Negotiations on wage demands between the managers' conference committee of southeastern railroads and heads of trainmen's and conductors' labor organizations continued today in Washington but resulted in no announcement of a decision. The United States board of mediation, which asked both parties to the wage discussion to confer, took no hand in the discussions, and none of those participating hoped for an early outcome.

The demand of the labor organizations upon which a strike vote has been taken though not counted is for a 10 per cent increase in the wages of train service employees. Failing an adjustment by negotiation, the question may be put up to arbitration, but that issue also has so far been left unsettled.

J. A. Sapp Wanted.
Tallahassee, Fla., January 21.—(AP)—Governor Martin today authorized a reward of $100 for the arrest and conviction of J. A. Sapp, wanted, the executive order says, for the murder of a woman in Holmes county April 6, 1924.

After the 'Flu' is over —you need a Tonic

Help Is Needed to Restore Your Wasted Strength and Energy.

"Flu" leaves the body weakened and rundown. In such cases, a tonic is clearly indicated. Restore the appetite and rid yourself of that let-down feeling.

"Flu" is a very enervating disease. It leaves its victims so weak and debilitated that there is as much danger from the after effects as from the disease itself. In other words, after an attack of "flu," you need a selective tonic to rebuild the system so that you may have your old-time strength and energy restored.

S.S.S. is unequalled for restoring strength and vitality. You owe it to yourself and family to give S.S.S. a trial. It helps Nature build up red blood corpuscles. It improves the processes by which the body is nourished. It is time-tried and reliable. S.S.S. is made from the roots of fresh herbs and plants, and is prepared in a scientific way in a modern laboratory.

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.—(adv.)

WIFE OF COMRADE BETRAYS CONVICT

Tulsa, Okla., January 21.—(AP)—A woman's fear that her husband, a paroled convict, might "hold up a bank or something," led to the capture, near here early today, of John Mayo, who escaped from the Tulsa county jail Sunday.

May and Nat Green, the husband, were arrested in an old cabin in the rough hills of the Osage country by Sheriff R. D. Sanford. Mrs. Green had told the officers to try to find her husband. She feared he was with Mayo.

At 2 a. m. today Sheriff Sanford left with a selected posse of officers and surrounded the place. Mayo was found behind the door of a bedroom.

A prisoner from the Kansas penitentiary at Lansing, Kan., Mayo was brought to Oklahoma by federal officers to testify in the trials growing out of the Osage "reign of terror," in which it is alleged that nearly a score of wealthy Indians met death. He has been serving a 21-year sentence for bank robbery.

Early Sunday he became enraged by reports that another man had been attentive to his wife, and because he had not received a pardon he thought of adding the government. He approached two jailers with a revolver in each hand and locked them in the "bull pen." Then he took two more jailers and an automatic rifle and escaped.

BRITAIN URGES FEWER COLLEGES

Georgia School of Technology at Atlanta and a few high-grade women's colleges and normal schools.

"We need some of the other institutions definitely as junior colleges instead of additional universities or high schools, but I insist upon the necessity for the proper support of those mentioned and the cessation of county colleges as the crowning needs of Georgia statehood today."

A distinct advance was seen in denominational colleges of the state in the last decade, among which Dr. Brittain mentioned Emory university, Wesleyan, Mercer, Shorter, Bessie Tift, Agnes Scott, Oglethorpe and Piedmont colleges.

Continued Today.

In addition to the address by Dr. Brittain at the banquet Friday night, short talks were made by presidents of all colleges and universities in the association. President W. F. Quillian, of Wesleyan college, president of the association, presided.

The meeting will continue through today and tonight. A business session will be held at 9:30 o'clock this morning at the Henry Grady. Among those to speak at the morning session are President J. R. McGinnis, of Agnes Scott college, and Dean Peyton Jacobson, of Wesleyan college, president of the association, presiding.

The afternoon session will be devoted to an address by J. S. Stewart, of the University of Georgia, who will discuss phases of the relationship of high school and college. The election of officers will take place tonight, prior to adjournment of the convention.

4 CHILDREN DROWN TRYING TO FORD SWOLLEN CREEK

Nashville, Tenn., January 21.—(AP)—Four children, ranging in age from eight to 14 years, were drowned this afternoon while attempting to ford Drake creek, swollen by heavy rains up-stream, a mile and a half above Shackle Island. Only one body had been recovered by Friday night.

The victims, all children of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Latimer, of Shackle Island, are: Louise, 14; Bessie Bell, 12; Sue Elizabeth, 10, and Harvey Robert, 8.

The children were returning from school Friday afternoon in a horse and buggy and Latimer was riding horseback a little behind. He warned them not to try to cross the creek until he got there, but for some reason the children started across.

Latimer was not in sight of the ford when the children started across. When he got to the ford, all that could be seen was the buggy overturned in mid-stream, and the horse struggling against the current. The children had been washed downstream.

ed today, according to Mr. von Herrmann, for all adjoining states are having plenty of rain now and Georgia should have some rain within the next few days.

COLD WAVE TAKES FOR SOUTHWEST

Kansas City, January 21.—(AP)—A cold wave that brought the coldest weather in two years to parts of the Rocky Mountain territory, with lower temperatures in prospect for tomorrow, was sweeping down on the southwest today.

Warnings of zero and sub-zero temperatures were predicted for Kansas and Kansas City, and 18 to 20 above in Texas.

All western Montana experienced the coldest weather in more than two years today. Have had 30 below zero at Billings 33 below and Miles City, in the eastern part of the state, had 28 below.

Missoula, west of the Rockies, was the warmest spot in the state. It was 18 below zero there.

In Wyoming the sub-zero temperatures ranged from 3 below at Cheyenne to 31 below in Sheridan. The cold interrupted the airmail service, east-bound matter being sent by train from Cheyenne last night.

Relief from the cold in the extreme northern part of the territory was promised for tonight. The intermountain country will get the coldest weather of the year tomorrow morning, the Salt Lake City bureau predicted.

Snow was falling in western Kansas late today, where temperatures of 5 below are expected before morning.

Oklahoma reported rain over the state today. Have had 30 below zero at the Dallas territory. A mist fell in the region of Wichita Falls, Texas.

CENTRAL OFFICIALS VISIT BARNESVILLE

Barnesville, Ga., January 31.—(Special.)—Officials of the Central of Georgia railroad, including President J. J. Polley, were guests of the local Citizens meeting Thursday night, when dinner was served by members of the Woman's club.

President Polley and J. D. McCartney were the principal speakers and told of the plans for service made by the Central road.

Officers Affected by Police Shake-Up

The recent police shake-up left several officers of the force in new positions. The officers affected by the changes are shown above, left to right: Captain A. J. Holcomb, Lieutenant T. D. Shaw, Lieutenant W. H. Andrews, below, Lieutenant E. S. Acree and Lieutenant T. O. Sturdivant. Captain Holcomb, formerly head of the plainclothes department, will have charge of the traffic bureau. Lieutenant Shaw will exchange places with Lieutenant Sturdivant, who was in the plainclothes department. Lieutenant Andrews was in uniform at the station. Lieutenant Andrews, who was in the plainclothes department, will continue his post in the newly created detective department. Lieutenant Acree will have complete charge of the vagrant and whiskey squad.

prior to publication of the order and are said to have disagreed some on qualifications of certain men who were being assigned or transferred.

Following this session, the order was published, and Chief Poole announced that no further changes will be made for the present but that every man will be given a chance to make good.

Loafers Heads Squad.

Lieutenant E. S. Acree, former officer of the plainclothes squad, was given complete charge of liquor and vagrant squads, subject only to orders of Chief Poole and Beavers.

This is one of the most responsible posts of the department, according to high officials.

In making the appointment Chief Beavers declared that a consistent and continuous drive against idleness would reduce crime in Atlanta, and that those who have no "visible" means of earning a livelihood to leave the city or get work.

"Persons who loaf are responsible for the crime in Atlanta and we intend to do everything possible to correct this evil," the chief said.

Orders issued Friday transfer the following members of the plainclothes to the uniform force:

Captain A. J. Holcomb, Lieutenant Sturdivant, M. P. Warren, W. O. Bullard, J. H. Davenport, W. Evans, E. W. Ginn, E. D. Meek, J. C. Mosely, J. C. Simmons, W. H. Harrison, C. E. Ford, J. R. Mosely and L. D. Portwood.

The following men were transferred to the detective department: Lieutenant T. D. Shaw, J. E. Chandler, L. J. Brooks, H. E. Brown, Campbell, L. D. Cady, J. J. Cowan, J. C. Davis, J. H. Doyal, O. D. Evans, B. P. Gillespie, R. E. Whitley, J. J. Chester, L. A. Lanford, W. E. Lee, G. C. McCarty, E. J. Pate, J. H. Satterfield, S. A. Smith, A. G. Stone, J. N. Starnes, J. L. Whitley, E. E. Blair, J. T. McCall, W. E. Lowe, E. H. Holley, W. W. Ford, J. M. Austin, H. W. Armstrong, T. B. Lanford, R. L. Hollingsworth, C. L. Hamilton, Mrs. O. M. Mullins and Mrs. Mamie Langston were assigned to the detective department as clerks.

The whiskey squad will be composed of Lieutenant E. S. Acree, S. D. Priest, S. D. Harper, W. J. Stephens and G. O. Wallace.

In assigning Captain Holcomb to supervise activities of the traffic squad Chief James L. Beavers made it clear in a talk to members of the evening watch that they were to obey orders of Captain Holcomb and cooperate fully with him in an effort to stamp out speeding and reckless driving.

"There will be no conflict of orders from the captain, and I will hold them strictly accountable for your work and they in turn will hold you," the chief stated, "as added that operation of motor vehicles with a reckless disregard of human life and safety shall stop."

Captain Holcomb, who was detailed from the uniform rank to the plainclothes department about three years ago, automatically would revert to his former rank of uniform captain upon abolition of the whiskey squad, which he had been assigned by the police committee, his friends held. As all uniform positions are now filled by captains, he was given the assignment by the chief until he and the committee could determine whether such an arrangement should be permanent.

"I am glad to return to the uniform rank," he said.

Relieves Cold While You Sleep

Discovery of Distinguished Chemist Said to Be Greatest Medical Find of the Age.

Recent scientific research discloses the fact that poison bile in the system is merely a contributory cause to bad colds, and that the "bad cold germ" propagates only when the system is acid.

Two things then, are now considered necessary for bad cold relief: thoroughly cleanse the liver, stomach and bowels, and alkaline the system, which can now be done for the first time with one preparation, "Alertox," the discovery of a Southern Chemist.

Alertox is a liquid saline solution of well known mineral salts, dominated by sulphate of magnesium, which causes a physical (natural) evacuation of the entire intestinal tract, at the same time neutralizing the acidity of the system. Strong purgatives tend to send the liver merely cause a "chemical" evacuation and should be avoided, as they leave the system in a weakened condition. Under the Alertox treatment, the system is fortified and colds rarely ever hang on more than 24 hours, and often disappear in half that time.

Alertox is pleasant to take, non-irritating, non-absorbent and will not sicken or nauseate. 25c and 60c sizes at any drug store. If your druggist cannot supply Alertox, it can be sent direct upon receipt of price. Crystal Carbolic Laboratory, Desk 2, Atlanta, Ga.—(adv.)

AMERICANS QUIET HOMES IN CHINA

back to Peking to protect Americans from the grave danger there.

Officials regard the situation as the most dangerous since the boxer rebellion and frankly fear for the lives of many American citizens.

What the situation will lead to no one was willing to predict tonight, but the gravity of the situation completely obscured the Mexican and Nicaraguan difficulties.

There is immediate danger, for inflammatory Chinese are clamoring for the slaughter of Christians. It was feared here that this lust for blood could not long be held in check.

The United States today had 20 warships in Chinese waters or on the way there. Seventeen more are being held in readiness at Philippine island ports ready to rush to the rescue. A total of 4,232 bluejackets are available besides 810 marines aboard American ships in Chinese waters and 528 marines held ready.

Marines at San Diego are also being held in readiness.

These American forces will limit their actions at present to protection of Americans and will not interfere with the internal Chinese military and political warfare. But this may eventually require more aggressive action than is now contemplated.

American women and children are being taken out of the country as fast as ships can haul them. The entire American population may have to be moved before the situation becomes worse.

Nevertheless, the white house declared tonight that despite this grave situation, the United States will continue its part in the execution of its agreements with China.

Evacuation of endangered Americans is going on rapidly. Sixty were taken from Foochow, where the anti-foreign feeling is running wild, to Shanghai, where better protection is possible. Sixty-three other Americans have arrived at Manila. American citizens in the interior were concentrating at Foochow, where they are being transported to safer points.

If American warships are not able to transport all of the refugees, commercial vessels will be commandeered to carry Americans to the Philippines or Hawaii.

Most American women and children already have been evacuated from Hangchow, Foochow, Amoy and Jiling. The danger is greatest at isolated points. Missionaries at many of these places have been warned to hurry to Shanghai.

Elaborate precautions are being made at Shanghai to care for these refugees and to protect them in the foreign quarters of the city.

Other powers with many citizens in the country are taking similar steps. It is possible that attempts will be made to combine on protective steps so that all foreigners will be protected by the combined forces.

That program was followed in the Boxer uprising.

At Manila preparations have been made by Red Cross officials to accommodate refugees from China pending their transportation back to the United States.

The gravity of the situation is revealed in the sudden orders to American Minister MacMurray to return to Peking. He has already sailed for the United States, having been called here to confer with officials regarding the American attitude toward abolition of extra-territorial rights. With Americans actually in danger of massacre, the discussion of abolishing the special foreign courts for foreign nationals becomes a theoretical matter in the opinion of many here.

Americans are scattered all through China, many of them missionaries at isolated points, utterly without protection and at the mercy of any infuriated mobs that start after them.

Chinese soldiers are carrying banners which read: "Now is the time to kill all Christians." Feeling which has smoldered for years against foreigners in China, inflamed by religious hatred, threatens to break loose at any time.

Of the 12,000 Americans in China, missionaries constitute the largest number. There are 1,500 men missionaries and 2,500 women, besides 100 children. Business representatives number 1,200 men with 700 women and 600 children. The professional group is composed of 200 men, 200 women and 180 children.

These Americans are distributed as follows: Shanghai, 4,000; Tientsin, 2,000; Hankow, 1,800; Nanking, 1,000; Canton, 800; Hongkong, 500. There are about 600 American firms doing business in China, about half with headquarters at Shanghai.

American investments in China are estimated at $150,000,000, about half commercial and half educational and religious.

American trade constitutes about 20 per cent of China's imports and 14 per cent of her exports.

AMERICAN MISSIONARIES SEEK REFUGE

Shanghai, January 21.—(AP)—A dispatch from Hankow dated Wednesday night said 27 American missionaries were leaving Chungking, Szechwan province, for Hankow today. Twenty-five other missionaries arrived there from the interior yesterday.

The message said it was believed in Chinese circles that Eugene Chen, Cantonese foreign minister, had sent the danger in the situation caused by the continued anti-foreign agitation, but that he was helpless against the radical element of the Kuomintang party, which is backing the Cantonese government. The radicals were said to be insisting on continued violent measures against foreigners despite Chen's attempts to obtain revision of China's present treaties through diplomatic channels.

AMERICAN DESTROYER MOVES TO FOOWHONG

Washington, January 21.—(AP)—The American destroyer Parrott has gone from Shanghai to Foochow, where foreigners have been threatened and churches looted. Word of the arrival of the Parrott has not reached the navy department.

AMERICANS ORDERED TO GET OUT OF CHINA

Manila, January 21.—All Americans living in Chinese districts controlled by the Cantonese government

either must leave China immediately sought the protection of the nearest guaranteed consulate or proceed to a sea port.

Orders to this effect were received in Foochow, China, from the American legation in Peking, according to C. E. Saragihurst, who was among the 65 refugees arriving here today from the former city.

Americans will remain only in areas where the Cantonese promise protection and appear able to give it, Saragihurst said.

The legation orders came just before hands of undisciplined Chinese soldiers raided the Foochow missions and schools, declaring Chinese children had been roasted alive.

Racing through the streets with part of a chicken incubator, which they alleged was the torturing device, mobs of Chinese damaged missions and threatened missionaries and demanded that all Christians be slain.

Gathering the American women and some of the men at the consulate, Ernest Price, American consul, called for the destroyer Pillsbury, which took them all aboard and brought them here. The Customs officer, who was stripped for action as the speed down stream to the open sea with the refugees, mostly women and children.

Among those who escaped were Mrs. Price and her four children, of Tipton, Okla. Price remained in the post to calm the Chinese if possible and to obtain transportation for the 350 American refugees in the district.

Included in the group also were Saragihurst's wife, Kansas City; Dr. Macbeth Hammons and mother, Pasadena, Cal.; Mrs. C. R. Kellogg and two children, Denver; Mrs. Ralph Leake, four children and mother, Keokuk, Iowa; Mrs. J. E. Gossard, Chicago, and R. B. Blakely and wife, Boston.

CABINET OF BRITAIN DISCUSSES SITUATION

London, January 21.—A grave view was taken of the Chinese situation here tonight when Prime Minister Baldwin unexpectedly summoned a cabinet meeting, postponing his departure for Chequers.

Lord Birkenhead, secretary of state for India, returned to London this morning and attended the meeting, while Winston Churchill, chancellor of the exchequer, is hurrying back, having abandoned his proposed trip to Egypt.

Today's session was devoted, it is learned to discussing how far the government can permit Counselor O'Malley to go in his dealings with Eugene Chen, the Cantonese foreign minister. Reports received today that the anti-foreign agitation is growing everywhere quickened the anxiety and it is probable Sir Miles Lampson's report China came before the cabinet today reviewing the general situation in the defense plans at Shanghai also were discussed.

It was reiterated in British official circles today that the government is willing to accede about 70 per cent of the reasonable Chinese demands by way of conciliation and negotiation, but it does not intend to be deprived of the Shanghai treaty rights through mob violence and it is understood that the upshot of today's cabinet meeting was that every step will be taken to protect the Shanghai rights.

COLD'S CHECKED QUICK

To check a cold quick and to cut short an attack of grippe, influenza, sore throat or tonsillitis, take one or two Klok-Lax tablets on going to bed tonight. By morning you surely will feel great.

Klok-Lax contains ingredients now recognized the world over to completely cleanse out the 28-foot intestinal canal of all poisonous wastes which breed disease. And Klok-Lax is as easy to take—no nausea—no griping—and yet you are thoroughly cleaned out—congestion relieved, liver active—head clear and the poisons in the bowels moved out.

Doctors recognize constipation as the one greatest danger to health and longer life—don't trifle—treat constipation rationally—most remedies relieve but do not thoroughly cleanse. When you know how Klok-Lax benefits you tell your friends—you will be so enthusiastic you will strongly recommend it to others.

Milton C. Work's Pointer On How To Play Bridge

(Milton C. Work, the international bridge authority, will answer your auction bridge questions. A stamped self-addressed envelope must accompany each request for replies.)

The pointer for today is: When you suspect that an opponent is revoking, you can call attention to his revocation if you fear you would lose by a revoke.

There is one point about the Revoke Law which does not seem to be generally understood. It is a new provision which gives to the opponent of a player who fails to follow suit the right to ask whether he has a card of the suit he is refusing. This is the question which the partner of the refusing player is expected to ask; but sometimes players, becoming accustomed to having their partners ask the question grow to answer it in the negative mechanically, whereas when the unusual happens and an adversary asks, they examine their hands carefully to be sure that they are not revoking. This safeguards against revokes which would cost the non-revoker more than two tricks.

Most revokes do not affect the result; some make a difference of one trick in favor of the revoker; a very few make a difference of two tricks; and on rare occasions the difference caused by the revoke exceeds two tricks. An intentional revoke, looking for a chance to be crooked, could doubtless find a number of opportunities to gain enough to pay the penalty and still be ahead; but the laws do not contemplate intentional revoking which is an ally degree form of crookedness; and instances of net gain from unintentional revokes are very rare. The new revoke penalty, although less drastic than its predecessors, is still (comparatively speaking) the most severe penalty in the American laws. But when the rare case does occur and the revoke does gain for the offender, bitter complaints are apt to be made against the inadequacy of the penalty.

When the revoke gains more than two tricks, the penalty is inadequate; but in almost every such case a thoughtful adversary should have protected himself by calling the attention of the revoker to the situation.

Sore on leg healed after years of suffering

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 10.—"I just want to let you know what your Resinol has done for me. For many years I had a bad sore on my leg. I had tried a number of different treatments including Electric Baths and different recommended salves. I suffered terribly at times as my work compelled me to be on my feet a great deal. Several weeks ago I saw Resinol advertised and in desperation I bought a small jar of this Ointment, not believing it would do me any good. However, after using it for one week I was surprised to see the ulcer was healing and by the time I had finished the second jar the healing was complete. I am glad to tell the world what Resinol Ointment has done for me and I will be glad to recommend it to any sufferer." (Signed) Max Endert, 63½ Jersey Street. ## Dynamo of Italy. An Intimate Story

Work, Night and Day, Without Respite, Is New Gospel of Italy; Peace, Prosperity the Goal of Fascism, Says the Duce.

Premier Demands That the Accomplishments of His Nation Be Recognized
the World Over;
Bickerings With French Press.

This is the sixteenth of an 18-article series on Mussolini.

XVI—ITALY AWAKENED.

Rome, January 22.—Since the duce's coming to power, the most grotesque and fantastic rumors as to his intentions and ambitions have circulated over the length and breadth of the earth. He was planning to oust the king and proclaim himself emperor, it was said. He proposed to fight France for the possession of Nice and Savoy, he wanted to treat the Island of Malta away from British dominion. It is most obvious to the most casual observer in Italy that if Mussolini chose to set himself up as emperor and assume the role and title of Caesar, he could accomplish the coup overnight. He has not only his million fascist militiamen at his beck and call, but the regular army would follow him blindly.

For Order and Peace. "Fascism has not yet been properly interpreted abroad," the duce told me. "Fascism stands for order, peace, tranquility and national prosperity. The charge has been leveled against us that we have set up a dictatorship, that we discount the blessings of democracy. Democracy is a fine set of trappings, which a great and prosperous nation like the United States may enjoy, but Italy cannot afford this luxury. Italy is poor. It must be guided with a strong hand to work out its salvation and its destiny."

Work is the new gospel of Italy. Work, night and day, without letting up or respite. To this ideal the million fascists have sworn allegiance. By work they hope to place Italy in the vanguard of civilization. The duce, the fatherland of Marconi and Christopher Columbus, is not a lifeless, exhausted race.

"Role Is to Govern."

Mussolini has reminded them that they are the conquerors and civilizers of the world. "Remember, Romans, your role is to govern." The old maxim has been revived. He has inspired them with a new ideal. First of all he claims justice for Italy.

There came some time ago the Cyprus incident, when the new Italy was confronted for the first time with what the fascists considered as an affront to her power and prestige as a great power.

A special squad of Southern railway detectives were conducting a separate investigation today. The decrees issued today, which are intended to complete the "fascistization" of higher education in Italy, provide four steps for the prevention of non-fascist instruction. The first provides that persons possessing "the requisite moral and political regularity" shall not be admitted to competitions for posts as teachers or professors. If not admitted, they are not to be appointed, anyway.

The second provision specifies that teachers assuming office shall take an oath not to hold membership in associations or parties whose activities cannot be reconciled with their duties as teachers. Third, teachers and professors in both public and private institutions may be dismissed if they show incompatibility with the government's political tendencies.

Fourth, schools, faculties, institutes, colleges and universities may be abolished if their instruction does not respect the social order.

WARRIOR BARGE PROFIT IS SHOWN IN U. S. REPORT

Washington, January 21.—(AP)—A net profit of $67,050 from operation of the Mississippi-Warrior barge lines last November as compared with a loss in November, 1925, of $47,943 was disclosed in a report furnished to Secretary Davis, of the war department, today by Brigadier General Ashburn, head of the International and Waterways corporation. Tonnage increased from 62,603 to 134,504 and General Ashburn attributed the improvement to better navigating conditions during November, 1926. The outstanding feature was the movement of grain, cotton, sugar and ore, which rose from 27,907 tons to 87,273 tons.

BIG COAL STRIKE APPEARS CERTAIN

BY ALFRED P. RECK.

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution) Washington, January 21.—The four horsemen of industrial warfare—strike, death, famine and destruction—are gathering near the borders of the great bituminous coal fields.

Already the ominous rumble of impending clashes are beginning to be heard in official Washington. Union miners and operators alike are girding for the fray, which is expected to follow termination of the Jacksonville agreement on March 31.

Mine union leaders and coal operators are scheduled to meet in Miami, Fla., on February 14, in an attempt to negotiate a new wage scale agreement, but disagreement and talk of walkouts are already manifesting themselves on both sides.

Failure to reach a compromise is regarded here as almost certain. Operators have indicated they will about all the bickering and nasty reproaches in the Italian and French press lately.

Mussolini feels that the glory of winning the war is big enough to be shared with the fruits of victory must be shared also. With his passionate desire for justice he demands that Italy's accomplishments be acknowledged. If France were a sensitive nation, Mussolini has made Italy supersensitive.

LYNCHING PROBE WILL BE PRESSED

Columbia, S. C., January 21.—(AP)

Investigation into the lynching of two negro men and one negro woman at Aiken, S. C., last October, will be pressed, B. D. Carter, state prosecuting attorney, said here today.

Mr. Carter announced that further inquiry into the affair would be made next week by the Aiken county grand jury, before which one long investigation already has been held.

Bertha, Demon and Clarence Lowman, alleged slayers of an Aiken county officer, were taken from jail and transported to the outskirts of the town and shot to death. The lynchings apparently had ordered the negroes to run and as they fled they were riddled with bullets.

Demon Lowman had been granted a new trial by circuit court the day before the lynching occurred. He previously had been under sentence of death. Hearings in the case of the

WRECKAGE TELLS TRAGEDY OF SEA

Boston, January 21.—(AP)—Fears that the steamer John Tracy had foundered off Cape Cod in the blizzard of January 11, changed to grim certainty today when the name plate of the vessel, parts of her hatch covers, and an empty lifeboat were picked up near George's Shoal, off the Cape Cod coast. The steamer carried a crew of 27 men.

2 NORFOLK MEN ABOARD VESSEL

Norfolk, Va., January 21.—(AP)—The Collier John Tracy, 10 days overdue from New York to Boston with a cargo of coal, normally carried a crew of 29 men, but whether she was short handed when she left here could not be ascertained tonight. The steamer or left Norfolk at midnight Saturday, January 8, and should have reached Boston January 11. On that date she was sighted off Pollock Rip Lightship and had not since been heard from until one of her lifeboats was packed up today off Cape Cod. At the time she was sighted, the steamer was battling a severe northeast storm but was showing no signals of distress.

So far as could be ascertained tonight the only two men in the crew from this section were Chief Engineer Richard Delnam and First Officer Morton B. Clarke, both of Norfolk. The wives of both have been making every effort to obtain news of the missing ship.

The John Tracy carried no wireless apparatus, and therefore could not make known her plight when she got into trouble. It was thought possible here that she had been disabled and blown far off her course with no means of communicating with other vessels. However, hope that she was still afloat was abandoned with news of the finding of the lifeboat. While there is a bare possibility that some outboard ship might have picked up the crew, the belief here is that all hands went down or news of their rescue would have been made known by this time.

The Tracy was a ship of 1,502 net tons and was owned by the M. and J. Tracy Steamship company, which operates a fleet of vessels in the coastwise trade.

Griffin Experiment Station To Submit Plans For Building

Griffin, Ga., January 21.—(Special)—The directors of the Georgia experiment station, in regular quarterly meeting here, expressed themselves as being much pleased with the work that is being done at the station and stressed the need of additional buildings to continue carrying on the work in a satisfactory manner. It was announced that definite plans for the erection of new buildings in which to house the office, laboratory and library would be submitted at the April meeting of the board.

J. P. Nichols, Jr., of Griffin, who was recently appointed by the governor as a member of the board of directors to succeed Judge J. J. Flynn, was elected as a member of the executive committee of the board.

In the absence of Commissioner J. J. Brown, chairman of the board, Dr. L. G. Hardman, governor-elect of Georgia, presided.

Members of the board present were Dr. L. G. Hardman, Comstock; J. W. Andrews, Carnegie; J. S. Chamberlain; W. D. Hammack, Coleman; William Henderson, Oella; Max L. McRae, McRae; J. H. Mohler, Hamilton; J. P. Nichols, Jr., Griffin, and Dr. Andrew M. Soule, Athens.

Lanier Poets Beat Boys' High, 33 to 29; Smithie Cagers Win

Invading Basketeers Cop Early Lead But Are Overcome by Local Quint—Kirk Ties Score as Whistle Blows But Purple Team Loses Hard-Fought Game.

Lanier High defeated Boys' High at Grady court Friday night, 33 to 29, in a hard, fast game that required an extra five-minute period to settle the question of which was the better team.

Lanier jumped into a three point lead at the first of the game but was soon overtaken by the Purple, thanks to Tommy Reeder and the Boys' High passing attack. The purple-jerseyed lads ran up quite a comfortable margin, which they held until the middle of the second half. Then the Poets stepped out and forged ahead two points.

At this stage of the game, our hero, Miller Kirk, Boys' High guard, stepped into the limelight. Kirk had a beautiful defensive game during the whole time, but hadn't shot any points, as a player in his position usually doesn't.

Kirk Knocks Count. The game was progressing fast and furiously, with about 10 seconds of

Annual Regatta Opens in Florida

Mount Dora, Fla., January 21.—(AP)—Before a crowd of nearly 10,000 people the Florida speed boat racing season for 1927 got away to an auspicious start today in the annual winter regatta held by the Mount Dora Yacht club under the auspices of the Florida and the Mississippi Valley Power Boat associations.

Marred by only two minor accidents, the program, opening with a race for small outboards in the morning, continued throughout the day and brought into competition some of the fastest boats in Florida. The day's most spectacular performer was Miss River Heights, a powerful displacement boat of 275 cubic inch class from Tampa, which, although the fastest boat in the regatta, was forced to accept a tie in her class with Miss Lake Jem, of Mount Dora, when engine trouble prevented her from finishing in the first heat.

The scoring in all classes was based on the point system, each heat counting in the final result.

For the 510 hydroplane class only one boat showed up, Oh Henry, of Winter Haven, which was put out of the running until late in the afternoon as a result of turning over while making a sharp turn during a trial run. The driver was uninjured and the boat was towed ashore.

finish. Boys' High was not playing the same game in the second stanza that it was in the first—and thereby hangs the tale.

During the first of the game, the home team's man-to-man defense broke up the visitors' passing offense, while the Purple put in some good floor-work and worked a great majority of its passing formations. Several times, Reeder would stand under the goal for an easy score on passes.

Young, Lanier center, and Underwood, forward, worked well together, and their height gave them an advantage over the Purple.

Reeder Leads Scorers. Tommy Reeder, captain of the local team, was far above the rest on the matter of scoring points, and rounded up a total of 15, six field goals and three fouls. His floorwork was good, and he also made some shots from difficult angles.

Underwood, forward for Lanier, shot four field goals and two fouls.

MERCER BEATS CHATTANOOGA QUINT, 55 TO 32

Macon, Ga., January 21.—(AP)—Phony Smith, Mercer's star forward, ran wild against Bill Redd's Chattanooga Moccasins here tonight and dropped in nine field goals and five foul shots for a total of 23 points, leading the Bears to a 55 to 32 victory over the Tennesseans.

Smith, in addition, played a brilliant floor game, his dribbling and handling of the ball being phenomenal. The Chattanooga team displayed a fast passing game but could not cope with the Bears on shooting. William Dicks, Mercer running guard, scored 12 points, most of them coming on long shots from mid-court, while Captain Malcolm Green, of the Bears, tallied 11 markers.

McCoy, with 11 points, and Lebovitz and Holland, with five and seven points, respectively, led Chattanooga's scoring.

Mercer plays Vanderbilt's Commodores here Saturday night.

Lineup and Summary. MERCER (35) Pos. CHATTA. (32) Smith (23) f. f. Holland (7) Green (11) f. f. McCoy (11) Green (11) f. f. Wyatt (4) Yick (12) f. f. Bradwood (2) Parks (1) f. f. Timer, Morgan.

For a total of 10 points, to take second scoring honors for the night. The other Lanier forward, Young, got eight points, and displayed his ability to ring long and difficult shots. Smith played a good game at center for the Poets, as did Nichols at the same position on the Boys' High team. McGaughey was closely watched during the game and failed to get his usual large quota of points.

The game was hard fought, and fouls were frequent, but no one was injured.

Lineup and Summary. Lanier High (33) Pos Boys' High (29) Underwood (10) f. f. Reeder (15) Young (8) f. f. McGaughey (5) Etheridge (5) f. f. Colvin (1) Corbin (1) f. f. Kirk (2) Substitutions: Lanier, Mountford

DECATUR FIVES SPLIT DOUBLE BASKET BILL

Decatur and Marietta High schools split a double bill at the Decatur gym Friday night, the Decatur girls winning from Marietta by a score of 13 to 8, while the Marietta boys won, 33 to 29.

The Decatur girls, led by Miss Fincher, captain, played a good, hard game throughout, and shot four field goals and five out of 13 fouls to win. Jackson, right guard on the DeKalb county team, led in scoring with five points.

Marietta led the Marietta team with five points. The Cobb county girls put up a hard fight, but Decatur was the stronger.

Lineup and Summary. DECATUR (13) Pos. MARIETTA (8) Anderson (4) f. f. Moore (3) Fincher (1) f. f. Morrie (5) Melton (1) f. f. McDaniel (1) Substitutions: Decatur—Jolly, Substitutions: Marietta—Dobbs, Decker—Martin, Griggs, Decker, Walker.

The boys' game was a bitterly contested affair, with the lead changing hands several times.

Marietta shot seven points at the beginning before Decatur could get started. Then Decatur settled down to work and the half ended at 14-14.

In the second half Decatur went ahead, and at one time led Marietta, 26-20. Then Johnson went via the personal foul route, and the Marietta offense began to get through for points. Jolly, of Marietta, led his team in points with 10.

Lineup and Summary. MARIETTA (29) Pos. DECATUR (29) Jolly (10) f. f. Cavan (13) Latimer (12) f. f. Hester (4) Anderson (5) f. f. Morgan (7) Cent (2) f. f. Taylor (2) Substitutions: Decatur—Mullins, Dougherty, Gaudin—Goodson (2), Brooks, Reese, Walker.

SMITHIES BEAT G. M. A. CADETS. Tech High and G. M. A. engaged in a hot battle on the Grady court Thursday afternoon, the Smithies finally winning, 30 to 22.

The score during the first half was rather one-sided in Tech High's favor, the count at the end of the first period being 20 to 3.

After that the Cadets came to life and began playing a game that looked something like basketball, and with Phillips and Sorrell leading the attack, threw a big scare into the Smithies by running the score up to 22 while Tech High's remained at 26.

But it was practically the same story in the last half with Tech High being the hero. Hammond, White and company kept themselves fairly active throughout the affair.

White led the scorers on both sides with five field goals and a total of 10 points. Hammond was next with nine to his credit. Mott and Phillips, of the G. M. A., were next with eight each.

The Smithies will meet an old rival of theirs, Lanier High, tonight at Grady court. These teams locked horns down in Macon a week ago and the Poets were victorious, 43 to 33.

With the game being played on the home court, the time has been pointed out for the Smithies and supporters are looking for a different score. Claude Tolbert, who directs the destinies of Tech High, says his team will be in better shape, and is looking for the squad to give Lanier a hard battle.

Lineup and Summary. TECH (30) Pos. (22) G. M. A. Terrell (6) f. f. (6) Sorrell White (10) f. f. (8) Phillips Hammond (9) f. f. Broadfield Chandler (2) f. f. (8) Mott Stearns (2) f. f. ## Local Soccer Team To Practice Today

The Atlanta Soccer club will hold a practice game at Piedmont park this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. All men interested in soccer football will be welcomed at the practice.

Riverside Military academy will send a team here to play the Atlanta team in the near future.

The local club has also received a challenge from McCallie High school, champions of Chattanooga, for a game. Arrangements are being made to bring the latter team here.

For any information desired call Walnut 7378.

ATLANTA 'Y' CAGERS LOSE BY ONE POINT

Nashville, Tenn., January 21.—(Special).—Playing hosts to the Atlanta Y. M. C. A. the Nashville Ramblers fought to a one-point victory in a closely contested affair here tonight. The final score was 26-25, Ramblers.

The Ramblers returned strong in the second half while the "Y" men apparently went into a trance. Overcoming a 10-point lead, having ended the first stanza, 19-9, the Ramblers forged ahead in the final minutes of the tilt for their close victory.

Roberts, Rambler forward, was high point man with 12, while Wilkinson and O'Connor of the visitors were next with 8 each.

Lineup and Summary. RAMBLERS (26) Pos. ATLANTA (25) Roberts (12) f. f. Wilkerson (8) Spain (6) f. f. Brock (4) Schwartz (4) f. f. Nichols (3) Embury (2) f. f. O'Connor (8) Substitutions—Ramblers: Sharp (2) for Roberts, Eaton (2) for Spain, Hickman for Schwartz, Johnson for Currin; Atlanta "Y": Adcock (2) for Nichols.

The Governor's Horse Guards, entering the basket circle for the first time this season, are holding their own with other teams in their class, and it is expected that the All-Stars will have their hands full.

Fulton High has had considerable training since their first game with the Epworth's and they will no doubt give the All-Star lads a harder job.

MOORE ENTERS SUIT AGAINST RAJAH TODAY

Cincinnati, Ohio, January 21.—(AP) Fred L. Moore, Newport, Tenn., sportsman, announced today he will file suit in St. Louis tomorrow for recovery of approximately $90,000 from Rogers Hornsby, former manager of the St. Louis Cardinals.

The sum Moore charges is due him for money advanced to Hornsby in personal loans.

The suit will be filed by Moore's attorney J. P. Rowe, Sr., of St. Louis, and an effort will be made to attach all of Hornsby's property, which includes 1,167 shares of stock in the St. Louis National league club, part interest in an apartment house and other assets, Moore said.

Moore claims he has letters, telegrams, cancelled checks, notes of hand and other written documents as proof of the loans. Hornsby's entire indebtedness to the Newport man was first placed at $92,000, of which $25,000 has been paid, Moore said. Suit will be brought for the remainder of the amount claimed.

The alleged indebtedness covers money which Moore said he paid to various bookmakers over the country on losing bets made for Hornsby at the latter's suggestion, and also includes money loaned to Hornsby for the purchase of his apartment house in St. Louis, for the purchase of a dog track, Jacksonville, Fla., and other investments.

Moore will go to New York tomorrow to obtain proof of certain dealings with ball players, he said.

JESUP HIGH SCHOOL NEARS COMPLETION. Waycross, Ga., January 21.—(Special).—The new Jesup High School building will be completed by February 15, it is announced, when appropriate exercises will be held to dedicate one of south Georgia's finest educational institutions.

Titleholder Beats European Champion In Twelve Rounds

LaBarba Drops Clarke in First of Initial Round—Scores Five Knockdowns in Fight—Outclasses Challenger Throughout Title Battle.

New York, January 21.—(By the Associated Press).—Fidel LaBarba, a dapper, curly-haired youth from Los Angeles, established an undisputed hold on the world's flyweight boxing championship tonight when he battered and felled Elky Clark, bristly little Scotchman and European titleholder, into defeat at Madison Square Garden.

The young American outclassed his British rival from the start to finish, scoring five knockdowns and constantly having Clark on the verge of a sudden finish. The judges' decision in LaBarba's favor was merely a formality after a 12-round match that was one of the most one-sided title bouts in recent ring history.

Saved From K. O. Only his gameness and defensive instinct saved the stoopshouldered, wobbling little invader from a knockout in the face of a steady hail of hooks, jabs and uppercuts that came from all directions. Once in the first round, the eighth, Clark crumpled to the floor under jolting hooks or swings but each time he managed to scramble to his feet before the referee reached 10.

The bell probably saved Clark from a knockout in the third round. He was face down on the floor after his third successive knockdown and had to be lifted to his corner by Referee Patsy Haley when the bell interrupted the count at six seconds.

With the Clark raled surprisingly after a round. Despite another knockdown in the eighth round, he stuck to the attack, at times even forcing the fighting and flashing a brief rally in the closing rounds.

Floored in First. At no time, however, was Clark dangerous. He was floored in the first round for a count of seven before the fight had fairly started and seemed to get over the dizzy effects of his punch.

Although conceding eight years of experience to Clark—who is 29 and the father of four children—LaBarba clearly outclassed his opponent in every department of the game. The little Californian outsped, outboxed and outpunched his rival at every turn. Clark failed to land a damaging blow at any time.

LaBarba, it seemed, missed many opportunities to end the battle, but he was overcautious and also found Clark a difficult target to nail at many critical moments.

A crowd of 16,000 paid $50,381 to see the title bout, which featured an all-flyweight card.

nine, Topping requiring a 42 and Hobart a 41. At the turn Hobart was one up on Topping, and the match on the eleventh, forged ahead at the twelfth and held his slender lead. Hobart came in in a 40, while his rival was in a 41.

The tourney inaugurated the winter season's play here.

Topping Tops Fla. Open Tournament

Belleair Heights, Fla., January 21.—(AP)—Henry J. Topping, Greenwich, Conn., won the open golf tournament here today, defeating Garret A. Hobart, New York, one up in the 18-hole finale.

The match was one of the closest ever played on the Belleair links, as at no time was there a margin of more than one up separating the contestants.

The medal of neither player was particularly brilliant on the outward

Tech Basketeers Beat Vanderbilt Quint, 36 to 29

Yellow Jackets Cop Early Lead To Beat Invading Cage Team

Player and Hearn Take Leading Roles in Defeating Conference Foes—Tech Quint Shows Great Improvement in Game With Commodores.

BY C. F. THOMPSON.

With Frank Player acting the part of the white-haired boy and leading the scorers with a total of 15 points, the first really brilliant performance turned in by him this season, Tech's yellow jacketed basketeers turned in a seven-point victory over the skyscraping Commodores of Vanderbilt Friday night, the final score being 36-29. Tech led by its margin of victory at the end of the first half, and Vandy never came within that charmed seven-point circle, though they managed to make score for score during the final stanza.

The skypointing proclivities of the Vanderbilt hoopmen found a checkmate in the still higher stature of Tiny Hearn, and for once Tiny made his advantage in height count, playing the best defensive game he has exhibited at home this year.

Develops Player.

Mundorff has worked wonders with the Tech outfit. He has apparently succeeded in making an accurate shooter of Player. With one more forward enable of playing the sort of game Player played Friday night he would have a conference championship calibre. And he may be grooming one at that.

Player was the star, starting from start to finish. His floor game was fast, his passing was accurate, his shooting was good, and his dribbling was of the ultra sort. Only once in the whole contest, and he played continuously, did he miss a pass and that time it was so completely out of reach that he could do nothing else but miss it. His fast floor work enabled him to dribble into the hole and score.

Stuart was high scorer for Vanderbilt, being the pivot man opposite Hearn and his 13 points were equalled by Hearn. Thus the two tied as runnups to Player in scoring honors.

The Jackets went to their scoring business in the early stages. Player and Hearn took two each to bring the score to eight points, while Stuart made two field goals for Vandy's four points. Player dropped a free throw, while Baker and Stuart each made a similar score. This placed the score 9-6 in Tech's favor, and from there Player and Hearn, assisted by a beautiful long hurl by George and a snappy short twister from Jamison, proceeded to run out on Vandy.

Facing a long disadvantage, Vandy rallied, a rally that lasted throughout the remainder of the game and brought their margin of trailing down to seven points as the half ended 22-15.

Trails Tech Cagers.

Making tally for tally, Vandy continued trailing by that seven point margin throughout the second frame. Tech men shot six field goals, distributed three to Hearn, one to George, Player and Wilder each, while Hearn sank two free tries out of a total of five awarded, for a total of 14 points.

Vanderbilt shot the same number of points. Its six field goals went to three men, three to Stuart, two to Bridges, forward, and one to Baker. Bridges' running mate in the fore post, Baker and Bridges made one free try each count for a point, while Stuart missed one. Thus the total Vandy points of the second half came to 14.

The invaders boasted a lengthy bunch. McCall, a guard, and Stuart, both towered into the air above the pack and run of the Tech team. Tiny Hearn was their only rival for honors in height, and Tiny towered over them.

It was a clean, fast exhibition of basketball, Vandy having seven fouls called on them, while Tech was guilty of only six. Sam Glassman refereed and Scrappy Sullivan umpired.

Tech made a total of 16 field goals and four out of nine free tries. Vandy made 12 field goals and hooped five out of seven free tries.

GEORGIA MITT SWINGERS LOSE FIRST BOUTS

BY MARCUS BRYANT.

Athens, Ga., January 21.—Georgia dropped the opening boxing match of the season to the Florida Gators here tonight, the Gators winning three matches against two for the Bulldogs. Two bouts resulted in draws. Apparent conditioning of the visitors was an important factor for the victors, as evidenced in the match last year.

The Bulldogs were winners in only two classes. Burney Humphreys, bantamweight selection, outpointed Miller in the initial bout, and the heavyweight bout was forfeited by the visitors to Captain Curtis Luckey. Leading the program were the fights between Gardner and Birchmore, Erwin and Jester, and Hall and Carpenter, in the featherweight, lightweight and light-heavyweight classes, respectively.

After offering three rounds of good milling, and going into an extra round, the Gardner-Birchmore match ended in a draw. Birchmore, the Bulldog entry, was handicapped by his opponent's reach, though he put up one of the best exhibitions of the night. Numerous fouls of Gardner were in evidence, and although somewhat unpleasant to relate, the sportsmanship of the visiting coach was far from becoming in more than one bout.

Captain Erwin, of the Gators, furnished the necessary edge in the final round in the bout with Jester, in a good exhibition.

Curry, of Florida, scored a technical knockout over Nelson in the middleweight class.

The light-heavyweight bout ended in a draw between "Six" Carpenter and Hall, of the Bulldogs and Gators, respectively. Carpenter began in a wild rush and easily had the first round, with the second about equally divided. The third round probably went to Hall, necessitating an extra round. Customers were of the opinion that the decision should have gone to Carpenter, but again, the Florida mentor voiced sentiments.

Gene Haley and Bobby Hooks offered an exhibition match in the closing event, proving highly interesting. The Bulldogs meet North Carolina here Saturday.

Joe Judge Signs.

Washington, January 21.—(AP)—Joe Judge, veteran first baseman of the Washington Senators, has signed a 1927 contract, leaving Earl McNelly, outfielder, the only member of the team who has not come to terms with President Clark Griffith.

HAWK-EYEING SPORTS

BY DICK HAWKINS.

Better and Longer Practice.

Within the next two weeks Georgia Tech will begin spring football practice and, according to our Auburn-haired correspondent, Red Barron, the spring practice of 1927 will be something of particular moment to Tech and its supporters.

Heretofore it has been the practice of Coach Alexander to limit the squad and limit the spring training to a month or six weeks because of the fact that he has had to take care of all the work himself, but this year the squad will not be limited and there will be at least two months of training.

Coaches Miller, Bjorkman and Fincher will all be on hand the first of the month to aid the chief in his work and from all indications the spring practice will take on the atmosphere of fall training, with hard scrimmage and all the rest of the grip on the program.

The fact that such men as Captain Crowley, Parham, Waddy, Brewer and Smith will be out for baseball will keep these players out of the early scrimmages, but the balance of the material will be on hand and with all four coaches doing the driving, spring practice at Tech should add much to the complexion of the gold and white team in the fall.

Much of Alabama's success has been credited to her strenuous spring practice system, and with the coach staff complete out at the flats Coach Alex will have his first opportunity to try the system here. With the material coming up from the freshman squad and the old stars back much is expected of Tech this fall. Coach Alex is making the right move with the intensifying of spring training.

Musical Football.

"Tuss" McLaughry, coach of the famous "iron team" of Brown university, declares that music furnished the iron for his great team last fall.

That is food for thought. Why not combine the football squad and the glee and mandolin club. Let the glee club sing while the squad plays. It might be a good plan to let "Wop" Roman join the coaching staff and produce some of that stuff that "HATH CHARMS TO SOOTHE THE SAVAGE BREAST."

The possibilities are great. Perhaps Wop could select a fife and drum corps to play "Marching Through Georgia" next December 3, when the hosts of Georgia and Tech stage their annual thunder and lightning at Grant field. A good quartet in the backfield should add much to the efficacy of the squad and it would not be very difficult to have the quartet sing some such jolly roudelay as "WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE?" or "SHAKE THAT THING," instead of calling signals, as is now the custom under the present soulless system of play, play, but no music.

Music might be used to intimidate the opposition by singing such songs as "YOU'D BETTER SEE PAPA (HOOD) OR SAY GOOD-NIGHT." But, of course, all that detail will have to be left to Wop and his choir leader, provided Coach Alex believes that his laddies must have harmony amid strife.

DELANEY BOIT GETS GOTHAM BOARD OKAY

New York, January 21.—(AP)—Tex Rickard's heavyweight program

hatched forward another step today with approval by the State Athletic commission of a battle on February 1 between Jack Delaney, world's light heavyweight champion, and Jimmy Maloney, of Boston.

Reported opposition to the match from the sources failed to develop. Chairman James A. Farley failed to press his objections to Delaney's moving out of his own class, while representatives of Tommy Loughran, Philadelphia contender for Delaney's 175-pound title, did not appear to file an anticipated challenge.

Sanction of the board was given with the usual understanding that Delaney keep his weight within the 175-pound limit of his own division. Maloney thus is expected to have an advantage of between 15 and 20 pounds.

Action on Rickard's application to charge a top price of $20 for ring-side seats was deferred until next week. The Madison Square Garden promoter did not fare so well in his attempt to obtain approval of a welterweight match set for February 25 between Ace Hickins, Nebraska, Wildcat, and Joe Dundee, of Baltimore. The board considered over Hickins as a welterweight contender, and suggested that a fight between Harmon and Dundee precede the Hickins-Dundee bout.

Request was made on behalf of Red Chapman, Boston featherweight, that a definite date be fixed for Chapman's return elimination fight with Benny Bass, of Philadelphia. Chapman is vowing first bout on a foul in the opening round.

Three eight-round preliminary bouts to the Graham-Rosenberg bantam championship match at Madison Square Garden on February 4, were approved.

HELEN SEEKS TO WIN BACK HER NET TITLE

Berkeley, Cal., January 21.—"Drawing and writing are easy for me, but I am taking my tennis seriously and will continue to do so until I win back my title," said Helen Wills today, announcing definite plans to enter the national tennis championships next August.

Her schedule for today seemed to bear her out. The program was "mostly tennis." The day was "mostly tennis."

Arriving home last night after several weeks in New York city, Miss Wills, for the first time since leaving Berkeley took advantage of the favorable weather to wield a racquet in the open air.

"For the first time since my operation last year I feel in absolutely perfect physical condition," she told the United News. "I worked out on inside courts in the east. All I need to do is to work myself into tennis form."

Miss Wills anticipates no little difficulty in winning back the title she was forced to relinquish because of her health.

"The American competition will be hard enough," she said, "but I understand an array of England's best-known women players is going to invade American courts for the national play," she said. "That should make the tournament even more interesting."

Miss Wills will not return to the University of California until next fall, when she will enter as a senior.

FLOWERS ENDS LONG TRAINING FOR BATTLE

Los Angeles, January 21.—(AP)—Tiger Flowers, former middleweight champion, and Leo Lomski, of Aberdeen, Wash., who are to meet in the main event of an open-air boxing show at Wrigley field Saturday afternoon, laid aside their gloves today, their training completed.

Coincidentally the Atlanta negro's manager, Walk Miller, announced that his plans call for a return bout with Mickey Walker, who won the title from Flowers last fall, soon after Saturday's fight. Miller said that the contract for the first title fight called for a rematch in the event Flowers should lose.

He was of the opinion that Jack Kearns, Walker's manager, is in favor of the bout regardless of the outcome of the Flowers-Lomski match, and added that Flowers' plans also call for a light-heavyweight championship fight late this spring, early in the summer with Jack Delaney, present titleholder in that division.

Flowers and Lomski each have peculiar records. Lomski, in his career, has been on the canvas but twice, has never been knocked out, and has lost only four decisions. Flowers, though more experienced, was knocked out five times before he won the middleweight crown.

Geo. Sisler Signs Contract for 1927

St. Louis, January 21.—(AP)—An agreement to sign a contract as first baseman for the Browns in 1927 was reached today by George Sisler, former manager of the club, at a conference with Phil D. C. Ball, president. Neither Ball nor Sisler would reveal the terms of the contract, but it was reported the first baseman would be paid a salary of $15,000.

Sisler said tonight that he also would enter into a "gentleman's agreement" with Ball but that the agreement was not covered in the contract itself. He declined to explain the nature of the agreement.

Dan Howley, new manager of the club, said he was glad Sisler would be with the club this year.

In announcing the agreement, Sisler declared he was in good condition and expected no trouble from an eye ailment that affected his batting previously.

Baker Enters Movies.

Rockford, Ill., January 21.—(AP)—Ralph (Moon) Baker, Northwestern's all-American halfback, has signed a one-year contract to make a series of 12 motion picture comedies. It was announced today by Harry Ryan, of Rockford, whom Baker has made his business manager.

Landis and Johnson Are Silent as Date Of Hearing Nears

Reports in Chicago Are to Effect That President of American League Will Retire—Tener Is Favored For Seat of Johnson—Rumors of New Major League Are Afloat.

BY DON MAXWELL.

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution.)

Chicago, Ill., January 21.—With the approach of the crisis in organized baseball set for Monday when American league magnates assemble before Commissioner Landis on a meeting that without much doubt will end the Landis-Johnson feud, both principals were maintaining silence today on plans of attack.

However, there were rumblings, and from these one could gather enough from close attention to form the belief that President Johnson, of the American league, will not give up in the fight and also that he will not be present on Monday, because he will have been removed from office by his own club owners before Landis calls his meeting to order.

Other rumors have it that the evidence against Ty Cobb and Tris Speaker, not yet made public, but secretly held by Johnson and the American league board of directors, does not refer to crookedness in any games, but shows that both Cobb and Speaker conferred some time during the last season with promoters who proposed to start a third major league.

Charges Denied. The "charges" against Cobb and Speaker, which have been made public before, but, according to reports, were denied by both players and supposedly dropped. Even if true, the players' actions would be no crime.

However, it is said the evidence was strong against them. It even was stated that only a few days after the exposing of their case by Landis, Cobb received a wire from one of the promoters to the effect that now would be a good time to form such a league.

It seems that these promoters, led by Tom O'Rourke, of New York, gave up their project, but had in mind a plan to start such an organization by grabbing the most popular player-managers in organized ball. They desired especially to secure Cobb, Speaker, Eddie Collins and George Sisler. All these men were deposed as managers last fall.

Reports from a reliable source reached Chicago today to the effect that Ban Johnson will retire and that the presidency of the younger baseball circuit will be given to John K. Tener, Edward G. Barrow, at one time president of the International league and now business manager of the New York Yankees, is not a candidate to succeed Johnson, it is said, and his name has been withdrawn from the list in favor of Mr. Tener.

Tener served as president of the National league from 1913 to 1918, during part of which term he was also serving his native state, Pennsylvania, as governor.

He resigned from the presidency of the league after a prolonged controversy.

Tom Wilson, Ansley Park, and Ben Jones came next in the running, shooting a best ball of 76. Willie Livingston and Tom Shropshire were next with a card of 78 for their round.

The next tourney of this kind will be staged at the LaGrange Country club on February 4, it was announced by the officials. Harold Holloway, LaGrange ace, will sponsor the tournament. Alex Milne, LaGrange professional, will be in charge of arrangements. All pros in Atlanta will invade LaGrange in quest of honors in the tourney.

Shooting a 67 over the troublesome Brookhaven Country club course, Howard Beckett, paired with Charlie Black, copped the second pro-amateur golf tourney Friday afternoon.

Beckett, playing his own course, turned in 68 himself. He came within an stroke of tying the course record of 68. Both he and Black shot some fine golf over the bare course. The weather was excellent for golf and almost every one went around in fine fashion.

Alex Melene and Harold Calloway, LaGrange golfers, ran second with a card of 72 and Wallace Linquist, pro at Piedmont, paired with Lewis Cutler, turned in a best ball of 74 to cop third place. Lindquist, paired with Gene Cook, Georgia state champion, won the initial pro-amateur tournament held at Ingleside a couple of weeks ago.

Tom Wilson, Ansley Park, and Ben Jones came next in the running, shooting a best ball of 76. Willie Livingston and Tom Shropshire were next with a card of 78 for their round.

The next tourney of this kind will be staged at the LaGrange Country club on February 4, it was announced by the officials. Harold Holloway, LaGrange ace, will sponsor the tournament. Alex Milne, LaGrange professional, will be in charge of arrangements. All pros in Atlanta will invade LaGrange in quest of honors in the tourney.

The results of the senatorial elections will be taken more seriously in Washington than in this country. At the capital they are preoccupied with the tactics of the political game more than with the substantive questions with which when he is interested at all, he is concerned. At the present time the senate can be organized as it seems likely, they operate with the Republic for the committee of equities of the major reliable support.

Miss Elizabeth Smith Weds Mr. Coffey at Quiet Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith announce the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth, to Leland T. Coffey, of Knoxville, Tenn. The marriage was quietly solemnized Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the home of the Rev. Dr. Sprole Lyons, who performed the ceremony, with only members of the two families being present. The bride wore a smart tailored costume of beige-colored cloth combined with crepe to match, and her hat was a small model of tan-colored straw. She wore a shoulder bouquet of orchids and valley lilies.

The bride is an attractive member of the younger social contingent and is a young woman of unusual beauty.

She is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith, being the granddaughter of the late J. Bruce Smith, of Georgia, and the late Judge Sidney Barr, of South Carolina. She numbers among her ancestry families who have long been identified with the south, finishing at St. Mary's, in Raleigh, N. C., where she was one of the most popular students.

Mr. Coffey is the only son of Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Coffey, of Knoxville, Tenn., who also are pioneers in their state. He received his early schooling at Baylor Military academy. He is at present attending the Atlanta Southern Dental college and is affiliated with the Xi Psi Phi fraternity. Mr. and Mrs. Coffey will make their home for the present at the St. George apartments until after Mr. Coffey's graduation, when they will leave for Knoxville, Tenn., to permanently reside.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble, and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist.—(adv.)

Richard Crooks To Be Presented by 'Atlanta Music Club

Social interest for Saturday will center around the appearance of Richard Crooks, the phenomenal young American tenor, singing for the first time in concert in Atlanta at the Woman's club auditorium at 3:30 o'clock, under the auspices of the Atlanta Music club.

Mr. Crooks has been compared to nearly every great tenor on the concert stage today and Atlanta will have the opportunity of making its own comparisons, or centering on the fact that he is simply Richard Crooks.

Certainly, being Richard Crooks is fame enough. While still almost a boy, Crooks has served in the air service during the war, has appeared a guest artist with some of the most famous choirs and orchestras, has toured Europe, the Orient and Australia in concert and since his engagement for Atlanta has been announced he has been selected by Bruno Walter to sing in the opening of opera in Berlin in September.

At the age of nine he was singing as soloist at Trinity Episcopal church in Trenton, N. J., his home town, and at the same time receiving vocal lessons from Sydney R. Bourne, the choir-master, who even then predicted a great future for the little boy.

In fact, Crooks manifested his talent even earlier. He sang at many private gatherings in Trenton when he was barely seven years old and residents of that town declare that he had then a most remarkably sweet boy soprano.

"Angelic" was the word mostly used to describe his singing.

His mother has said that: "Even when Richard was a baby he would stop crying at once when I or someone else in the family sang to him and when we gathered around the piano in the living room he would crawl up to the piano and sit there perfectly contented, listening to the music, except the louder pieces, which he disliked, and then he would vociferously register his disapproval."

"During his first year in graded school when he was six years old, he learned to pick out tunes on the piano one note at a time, and his favorite diversion was to sit at the piano picking at the tune with one finger and singing. He was popular with other boys, as I remember, and often joined in their games but from the very first music seemed to be his greatest interest in life. Of course, when we saw how things were going we had a local teacher give him music lessons, and unlike most boys he never complained about practicing and, in fact, very often did more than the lesson assigned instead of less."

Crooks' appearance in Atlanta will mark the second attraction of the series of intimate performances by the Music club. Tickets for the event will be on sale at the Woman's club.

Miss Small Entertains Black Cat Club.

The purpose of the meeting of the Black Cat club which was held Friday afternoon at the home of Miss Jane Small, on Myrtle street, was to complete plans for the benefit bridge which the club will sponsor the first week in February at the Piedmont Driving club, the exact date to be announced later. The proceeds to go for the benefit of the Georgia Children's home.

After the meeting tea was served from a beautifully appointed table. Miss Small was assisted by her mother, Mrs. James H. Small.

Georgia Health Officers Discuss Expansion Plans

Plans to extend county health work in Georgia were outlined at a conference Friday by county health officers of the state with Dr. T. F. Abernethy, state health officer, and Dr. M. E. Winchester, director of county health work, as chief speakers. Dr. C. L. Ridley, Dr. Deon, president of the State Health Officers' association, presided.

In their talks Dr. Abernethy and Dr. Winchester declared that Georgia is lagging behind other southern states in expanding county health work as far as state appropriations are concerned. This state does not appropriate any money for this class of service and it is being carried on with funds furnished by counties and by some cities.

One of the plans discussed Friday provides for consolidation of several small counties into one unit which will be handled by an all-time health unit. It was contended that defective children in remote rural sections were entitled to as much attention from health units as are children in cities, but without state appropriation it is impossible at this time to develop this work in the counties which need it most. Dr. W. G. Smilie, of the international health board, talked on technical phases of the public health work.

Governor-elect L. G. Hardman will be one of the principal speakers at the Saturday session of the association. He has committed himself to a policy of aiding the improvement of health conditions in the state. Other speakers on the program today will be Dr. Joe P. Bowdoin, T. F. Sellers, Butler Toombs, director of vital statistics, J. P. Lester, Marietta, Dr. M. A. Fort, Bainbridge; Dr. J. R. Evans, Decatur; Dr. Hugo Robinson, Albany; Dr. B. V. Elmore, Rome; Dr. H. L. Akridge, Brunswick; Dr. C. J. Wellborn, Gainesville; Dr. O. H. Check, Dublin; Dr. G. T. Crozier, Valdosta; Dr. W. C. Humphries, Griffin; Dr. J. W. Wallace, Thomasville; Dr. S. C. Rutland, LaGrange; Dr. J. H. Hammond, LaFayette; Dr. G. E. Atwood, Waycross; Dr. J.

JOHN W. BLOUNT

He has been elected potentate of Aleo temple, Order of the Mystic Shrine, of Savannah. He is a native of Rome, Ga., and married Miss Ann Rose, of Macon, and is assistant general passenger agent of the Central of Georgia railroad.

ENGINEER AWARDED $2,000 DAMAGES

J. S. McConnell, formerly an engineer of the Southern railway, Friday was awarded $2,000 by a jury in United States district court in his suit against the road to collect damages for injuries alleged to have been received when his engine turned over in April, last year.

The railroad claimed that the accident was McConnell's fault, and that he was not injured, while the plaintiff claimed permanent injuries as the result of the accident. J. Caleb Clarke represented McConnell and McDaniel & Neely represented the railroad.

$500,000 CONTRACTS FOR HIGHWAYS LET

Contracts were let by the state highway board Friday for approximately $500,000 worth of paving on three projects in Georgia.

The Dixon Construction company, Savannah, was awarded the contract for 8.967 miles of concrete on the Augusta-Louisville road in Jefferson and Richmond counties. The bid was $212,255.74.

NEWELL LECTURES ON R. L. STEVENSON AT WRITERS' CLUB

Three words, "Home, Hill and Sea," give an index into the character of Robert Louis Stevenson, members of the Writers' club were told by Dr. Lyman Churchill Newell, professor of chemistry at Boston university, at a meeting at the Atlanta Woman's club, last night.

Dr. Newell advanced the opinion that these three words influenced Stevenson more than any others. As an example of this he quoted the writer's famous epigraph in which these words are conspicuous. One of Stevenson's outstanding characteristics, the speaker added, was his ability in later years to project himself into the spirit of his childhood days.

Although a professor of chemistry and author of several books on this subject, Dr. Newell has been a close student of Stevenson and has written extensively on the life of this famous writer. He is at present working on a book, "The Shrines of Stevenson." Dr. Newell states that his study of Stevenson, is a recreation.

Mrs. Ashby Lectures.

"Laws of Compensation or Reaping" will be the subject of the lecture to be given by Mrs. Mae Ashby, psychologist, Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the mahogany room of the Ansley hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Ballenger To Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary at Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Theodore Ballenger will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary at a brilliant reception at 5:30 o'clock at the Piedmont Driving club Saturday afternoon with their son, Dr. Edgar Garrison Ballenger, acting as host. The occasion will assemble a large number of Atlanta society and will be the outstanding event of Saturday's social program.

A brilliant event of this afternoon will be the reception at which Dr. Edgar Garrison Ballenger will entertain at the Piedmont Driving club at 5:30 o'clock in honor of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Theodore Ballenger, who will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Receiving with these distinguished Atlantans will be their children, Dr. Ballenger, Mrs. Juliet Ballenger Moseley, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ballenger, of Hickory, N. C., and their grandchildren, Misses Mary Ballenger, Mary Moseley and Garrison Ballenger.

Mr. and Mrs. Ballenger are among Atlanta's most influential and beloved citizens, and a large number of friends will call to extend congratulations to this distinguished couple. The hour of the celebration marks the very hour their marriage took place 50 years ago, adding a delightful sentiment to the occasion. Both Mr. and Mrs. Ballenger are representatives of aristocratic and prominent North Carolina families, whose members have played important roles in the development of the civic, social and religious life of the south.

Mrs. Ballenger was, before her marriage, Miss Anna Garrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Garrison, whose colonial home in the Pacolet valley in North Carolina is one of the historic places of that state, having remained in the family for five generations. Following their marriage 50 years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Ballenger moved to Tryon, N. C., which they founded, and where Mr. Ballenger engaged in mercantile business. From 1869 until through 1872 Mr. Ballenger served the state of North Carolina as state senator.

Slams Salaams and

By Louise Dooly

THAT fashion among biographers these days of "humanizing" their heroes has taken the peculiar form of recognizing only the vices of the heroes as the qualities which make them human.

For my own part I prefer to believe that a few virtues in a man need not label him human. I prefer to believe that way, even though I may know deep down in my heart that I am throwing sand in my own eyes.

There is Dr. Archibald Henderson's book, "Washington's Tour of the South in 1791," which was written away back in the dark days of 1923 before the modernistic biographical style had reached America, and so before there was revealed to us the dominant sensationalism of the private career of the father of his country.

But it is a pleasant dalliance, reading Dr. Henderson's book, and I am grateful to him for restoring to George the grand manner.

WE rather impress ourselves, by the kind of official send-offs we give visiting royalties. But consider President Washington when he effected his departure from Philadelphia, then the seat of the national government, for that trip through the south, which, like his former and similar tours of the west and New England, sought to stimulate among the people of the new republic a more intense feeling for the new federal tie through contact with its head.

Consider President Washington's get-away, the description of which makes modern New York, with all its motorcycle escorts and ticker tape, or even Hollywood with all its pageantry, seem commonplace or merely noisy.

For President Washington, while he traveled in what might be called his "second-best" coach, rode rather magnificently. That coach was white. "There were beautiful designs of the four seasons by Cypriani painted on the doors and front and back of the Washington coat of arms within oval was painted on the four quarter panels; there were four Venetian blinds, six windows and a pair of whole framework and the springs were gilded. . . . plated door handles, plated brass buckles, plated mouldings around the roof, and a pair of double inside folding steps."

Says Washington in his diary: "In this tour I was accompanied by Major Jackson, my valet and attendant consisted of a chariot and four horses drove in hand—a light wagon and two horses—four saddle horses beside a led one for myself and five—to wit my valet de chambre, two footmen, coachman and postilion."

Dr. Henderson adds: "The outriders in their bright liveries of red and white gave a touch of gallantry and distinction to the equipage and cavalcade."

And now, forsooth, the best we can do for a president or a prince is a motorcycle escort. No wonder modern biographers, envious of George and the colorfulness and romance of his times, touch up his behavior to go with his style.

JUST to show how easy it is in studying history to exaggerate the unimportant: I find myself in Dr. Henderson's book lingering with fascinated attention on legends which the author of the book sometimes introduces not as history, but as specimens of the charming fiction finally accepted as fact, which can grow out of fragmentary incidents, elaborated on, through some local or merely personal pride or prejudice, out of all but the faintest resemblance to the real happening.

There is the story, for instance, of the government "palace" at New Bern, N. C., where President Washington was received, and at which was given a magnificent ball in his honor. "Troyan Palace"—the name makes one pause. It was built before the revolution, and therefore under a colonial governor, and thus the term.

But the legend which fascinates is the reason for the extravagance of its cost, more than 16,000 pounds, a poor o'money in those days, especially when it had to be met by the North Carolina colonial assembly, at that time unable to pay those taxes to England a part of a general colonial condition, which not long afterwards was to start the war of independence.

That extravagance was due, so the legend says, to the Marie Antoinette sort of influence of a woman, "the beautiful and fascinating" Esther Wake, sister-in-law of Governor Tryon.

The weight of Dr. Henderson's opinion is on the side of legend about the influence of Esther Wake, "who was ambitious enough to desire magnificent parlors and boudoirs, where to receive the homage of her numerous admirers." But those of us who like the picturesque and the romantic mixed up with our facts, and infinitely prefer the inaccuracies of the historical novel, for instance, to the sometimes equally inaccurate "facts" of the history per se, will cling to belief in the daring and dangerous Esther.

Marie Antoinette, for whom can easily be achieved, by a little play on words, a home-grown version of the "Troyan" in the "Troyan Palace."

AND so—I am not defending the lady, but I am grateful to her. She and her palace make so much more readable "history" than colonial distress from English taxation.

Sut up upon these reports awards to the humanizing biographers. They would write for the sensation-loving and larger than those readers who, like myself, enjoy an occasional return, if only in books, to the days and the heroes and the heroines of the grand manner.

Officers elected at the meeting for the coming year are: Allan C. Gottschaldt, Atlanta advertising man, president, and L. S. Bullis, secretary and treasurer. Dartmouth alumni will meet at the Ansley hotel on the first and third Fridays in each month, Mr. Gottschaldt said.

STREET CAR ROW PROVES CLEVER ROUSE OF THIEVES

What street car passengers thought to be an ordinary row over fare collection Thursday night proved to be a clever ruse of pickpockets, according to T. E. Longworth, of 930 Greenwood avenue, who reported to police the loss of $25 in money from his pockets.

Two men entered the street car and started an argument with the conductor, during the course of which some jostling was done. The disturbers were put off the car and it was then that Longworth discovered his loss. It is believed other losses were sustained among the passengers.

Knights of Pythias Install Officers For Ensuing Year

W. W. Grist was elected chancellor commander of the Supreme Lodge, Knights of Pythias, at a recent election and installation of officers. Other officers elected at the meeting are: M. L. Wheeler, vice chancellor; A. G. Sanders, master of finance; F. G. McElroy, master at arms; W. G. Griffin, keeper of records; A. W. Long, master of works; J. G. Williams, prelate; W. T. Tomlinson, inner guard, and W. R. Williams, outer guard.

Reports of the past year's work were read and adopted. The order now operates 18 homes for aged members, widows and orphans, and investments in this phase of pythian work amounts to more than $4,000,000, it was stated.

This wasn't the girl he'd married

HE WOULDN'T have believed so short a time could make such a shocking difference. What had happened to break her health—to steal that glorious vitality? Gone was all her old-time charm. . . . Why, she was old! She who had every right to be young!

Many a man and woman worries as youth and freshness fade. What a different story if they but realized how constipation wrecks health and vigor. Steals charm. Speeds the aging years! For no one need suffer from constipation. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to relieve every case—safely, permanently, promptly!

Why part-bran can't do the work

Doctors recommend ALL-BRAN because they know it takes ALL-BRAN—not a part-bran product—to produce results.

Here's what happens: ALL-BRAN absorbs moisture and carries it through the digestive system. And it gently distends the intestines—removing poisonous wastes naturally! ALL-BRAN is all bulk—which is why it produces complete results. In a part-bran product the quantity of bulk is so small that there is seldom enough to be effective.

Good-bye to dangerous pills! How different from habit-forming pills and drugs that become worthless unless the dose is constantly increased—and often cause serious injury!

ALL-BRAN is delicious with milk or cream—and add fruits or honey, if you like. Let it soak a few moments to bring out all its nut-like flavor. Use it in cooking. With other cereals. Try the recipes on every package. Eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal.

Be sure to get genuine Kellogg's—the original ALL-BRAN. Don't take chances with a part-bran substitute. Sold by all grocers. Served at hotels, restaurants. On dining-cars. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

By DR. ELLIOTT SHORING,
NOTED HISTORIANTraffic Club Plans Dinner
And Election of Officers

An annual stag dinner and election of officers of the Traffic Club of Atlanta will be held Monday night, January 31, at 7 o'clock at the Atlanta Athletic club, it was announced Friday by officials of the club. An elaborate program, including several well-known speakers, music and other events, has been planned, it was stated.

Among speakers at the dinner will be Dr. D. W. Daniel, head of the English department of Clemson college, and one of the best known speakers in southern college circles; George W. West, president of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, and others.

One of the features of the dinner will be an announcement of the outcome of an intensive campaign for leadership of two parties of the club, namely, the conservative and the progressive tickets.

Both sides have worked hard for the past few months, and rivalry has been keen with a final outcome depending upon a last minute rally by either side, officials stated.

An entertainment committee appointed by J. A. Streyer, president of the club, consists of the following: E. L. Coons, chairman; John M. Born, F. C. Fife, H. G. King, G. E. Boulineau, Brooks Brown, W. P. Hickey, B. S. Barker, George L. Morton, M. M. Emmert, J. H. Jontzen, Charles Bertram will act as toastmaster.

Musical events for the annual dinner include solos by Solon Drukenmiller, Atlanta tenor, and selections by the Georgia railway and West Point orchestra.

The following officers are ending an administration which has lasted over a period of 18 months:

J. A. Streyer, president; A. J. Young, first vice president; L. E. Chalmers, second vice president; F. B. Porter, secretary-treasurer; T. B. Curtis, director; C. E. Cotterill, director; J. W. White, director; P. A. Wright, director.

Two Tickets.

The following tickets will be voted upon at the coming meeting:

THE BRITISH NOW SENT AGENTS TO ROUSE THE INDIANS OF THE SIX NATIONS AGAINST THE VILLAGES OF THE FRONTIER. THE HORRIBLE SCENES, THE TRAGEDIES AND MASSACRES THAT FOLLOWED THE ATTACKS OF THE SAVAGES ARE NOT SURPASSED IN WARFARE. MANY ENGLISHMEN IN THE HOUSE OF LORDS PLEADED AGAINST SUCH TACTICS. LORD CHATHAM EXCLAIMING AFTER HEARING OF THE INDIAN OUTRAGES: "WERE I AN AMERICAN, AS I AM AN ENGLISHMAN, I WOULD NEVER LAY DOWN MY ARMS. NEVER."

WASHINGTON SENT FOUR THOUSAND MEN TO DEFEND, AS FAR AS POSSIBLE, THE HELPLESS PIONEERS FROM THE INDIAN MASSACRES, BUT TERRIBLE DAMAGE WAS DONE BEFORE THE INDIANS WERE DRIVEN FROM THEIR MURDEROUS WORK. WINTER WAS NOW AT HAND. THE BRITISH IN NEW YORK SPENT THE TIME IN DANCING, GAMBLING AND DISSOLUTE CAROUSAL. MEANTIME, GENERAL WAYNE CAPTURED STONY POINT FORTRESS ON THE HUDSON, WITH GREAT GALLANTRY, AND WASHINGTON, WITH SUPERB SKILL, HELD THE ENEMY AT BAY.

IN JULY, 1780, TWELVE FRENCH WAR VESSELS, WITH FIVE THOUSAND SOLDIERS, ARRIVED. WHILE THIS SUPPORT GREATLY CHEERED THE AMERICANS, MANY STILL FELT THAT VICTORY FOR THE COLONIES WAS IMPOSSIBLE. WASHINGTON, WITH SPLENDID MILITARY GENIUS AND SELF-SACRIFICING PATRIOTISM, THWARTED THE MOST STRENUOUS BRITISH EFFORTS. THE YEAR WORE ON WITH BLOODY CONFLICTS, BUT NO DECISIVE BATTLES.

THE AMERICAN GENERAL, BENEDICT ARNOLD, COMMANDING WEST POINT, WAS ONE OF OUR BRAVEST SOLDIERS, BUT A GAMBLER, RUINED WITH SO-CALLED "DEBTS OF HONOR." HE FELT THE AMERICAN CAUSE WAS HOPELESS, AND, FOR HIS PERSONAL GAIN, TURNED TRAITOR AND OFFERED WEST POINT TO THE BRITISH FOR GOLD. HIS TREASON WAS DETECTED AND HE FLED TO THE BRITISH.

SERVICES PLANNED TO HONOR JUDGE FISH

Memorial services in honor of the late Chief Justice William H. Fish, of the Georgia supreme court, will be held in the courtroom at the capitol at 11 o'clock March 5, and a committee to handle the exercises was appointed in an order Friday of the supreme court.

On the committee named by the court are former judges of the supreme court and court of appeals, former classmates of Judge Fish and other prominent lawyers throughout the state who were associated with him.

Judge Fish, at the time of his death, was serving as head of the law department of Mercer university. Until a few years ago he filled the post of chief justice of the supreme court and was regarded as one of the foremost lawyers and judges in the country.

Members of the committee appointed by the supreme court follow:

John S. Candler, chairman; Samuel B. Adams, Horace M. Rosten, Walter F. George, Hoke Smith, Thomas W. Hardwick, John M. Starn, R. Lawton, Z. A. Littlejohn, P. W. McIlrath, H. A. Mathews, R. N. Harleman, W. E. Thomas, V. V. Carter, C. F. McLaughlin, Arthur G. Powell, J. R. Pottle, Warren Grice, Joseph W. Bennett, U. V. Whipple, E. H. Callaway.

Tech Evening School
Will Have Courses
On Refrigeration

A course on refrigeration has been added to the curriculum of the evening school of applied sciences of the Georgia School of Technology.

According to the announcement the course is to be taught by C. T. Baker, well-known refrigerating engineer, and is designed to teach fundamentals of mechanical refrigeration, whether applied to quantity production of ice, cold storage or household refrigerators. It is said to be especially adapted to operators of refrigerating plants and is claimed to be practical rather than highly technical.

The classes in this course will meet two nights a week for two hours each night. The entire plant equipment of the Georgia School of Technology is at the disposal of the students in the evening courses of the school.

The ice plant of the university will be the study plant of the students in the refrigeration course.

Through its evening classes, the Georgia School of Technology, through its ambitious working men, the opportunity to acquire a technical education in the evenings. The plant equipment

GRAND JURY INDICTS
CRASH CAR DRIVER

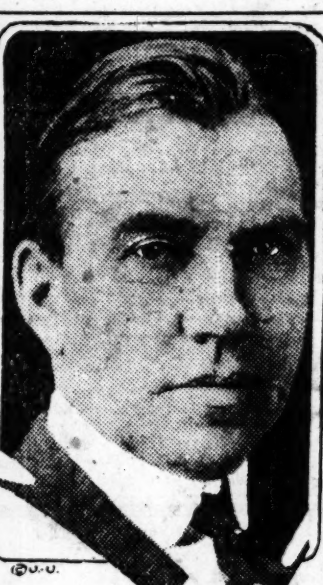

Two indictments charging assault with reckless disregard for human life were returned Friday by the Fulton county grand jury against J. G. Funderburk, of 438 South Pryor street, as the result of an automobile crash on Ponce de Leon avenue.

Funderburk was recently sentenced to serve 30 days in the city stockade, to pay a fine of $101 and was bound over to the grand jury by the recorder.

According to testimony in recorder's court, Funderburk was under the influence of liquor at the time of the crash. He drove his machine into the rear of a light coupe driven by L. M. Coats of 1512 Mosely street. In the car with Mr. Coats were his wife and Mrs. A. L. Powell, both of whom were injured.

FINLEY TO SPEAK
AT AGNES SCOTT

Dr. J. H. Finley, of the editorial staff of The New York Times, and noted educator, has accepted the invitation of Dr. J. R. McCain, president of Agnes Scott college, to deliver the commencement day address to the senior class at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, May 31.

Dr. Finley has received degrees from several prominent American universities and was president of the College of the City of New York from 1903 to 1913, after which he became commissioner of education of the state of New York, later president of the university of that state.

He is director of the New York Life Insurance company, a trustee of the majority stock of the Equitable Life Insurance company, and a trustee of the Sage Foundation. He was a member of the American army educational commission in France during the world war and was at the head of the Red Cross in Palestine and the Near East in 1918-19.

For the conspicuous part he played in the world war he received decorations from several foreign countries. Dr. Finley is an author of international reputation. His eldest daughter, Ellen, married Dr. William H. Kiser, Dr. and Mrs. Kiser having recently visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Kiser. They have returned to Baltimore, where Dr. Kiser will continue his hospital work until permanently locating here.

Dr. Finley has visited Atlanta several times and that he will be given a warm welcome upon the occasion of his address at Agnes Scott goes without saying.

FIRST WATER BILLS
ON HIKED SCALE OUT

First fruits of the 50 per cent water rate increase voted to retire the $832,000 school department deficit will begin to flow into the city treasury within a few days, it was announced Friday, when the first bills carrying the hiked prices were sent out. Due to the zone plan of reading meters, all the bills carrying the increase have not been delivered yet, but as these are reached the addition will be made and the increase will apply to all persons alike.

Retirement of the school debt will take a year, according to estimates, after which time the rate will be automatically lowered to its original point.

Indicted as Forger.

William Buckman was indicted Friday by the Fulton county grand jury on a charge of forging the name of R. C. Broyles, secretary of Atlanta Lodge, No. 75, B. P. O. Elks, to an order for $20 which was passed on the manager of a local hotel.

Committee Gives
Scenic Highway
To Thomasville

Selection of state route No. 3, from Atlanta to Thomasville, via Jonesboro, Griffin, Thomaston, Butler, Americus, Leesburg, Albany and Camilla, as the official leg of the Appalachian Scenic highway, was announced Friday by members of the committee selected to designate the route. Decision to extend the route through Florida to St. Petersburg also was announced.

Two routes to be selected as a leg of the scenic highway were open to the committee, the one selected and the other was the route from Atlanta to Thomasville, via Jonesboro, Griffin, Thomaston, Butler, Americus, Leesburg, Albany and Camilla. It was stated that the former was better adapted to the use of motorists and that it was in better condition than the latter route. Assurance also was given that the part of the unimproved route from Griffin to Thomasville will be improved and kept in fine condition for travel the year round.

Members of the committee in charge of selecting the route were: James I. Stikeleather, chairman; Roscoe A. Marvel, Dr. K. E. Bennett, Henry H. Estes and W. G. Menlor.

DR. FURRY TO SPEAK
IN ATLANTA SATURDAY

Rome, Ga., January 21.—(Special.) President W. D. Furry of Shorter college, who will attend the eleventh annual session of the Association of Georgia colleges to be held at the Henry Grady hotel in Atlanta January 21-22, will speak twice during the morning session on Saturday.

Dr. Furry will make a report on the use of intelligence tests as supplementing the high school certificate for admission to college and he will also speak on the value of "Freshman Week" and "Freshman Orientation Courses."

Dr. Furry will attend the annual meeting of the Southern Baptist Education association which will be held in New Orleans at the St. Charles hotel January 26-27. At this meeting he will speak on the increase of costs of higher education in relation to denominational educational programs.

Women's Simpler
Hygiene

More Absorbent—
Discards like tissue

By ELLEN J. BUCKLAND
Registered Nurse

ALL the problems of old-time hygienic ways have recently been ended, largely because of a new way called KOTEX.

Kotex discards as easily as tissue. Thus no laundry, no embarrassment of disposal.

Being 5 times as absorbent as ordinary cotton "pads," you wear lightest gowns and frocks without slightest fear. Deodorizes, too, thus ending all fear of offense.

Obtain at any store without embarrassment simply by saying "KOTEX." Many stores have it already wrapped on counters, ready for you to pick up and take along without even asking for it.

Try today and you'll never again risk the uncertainty of old ways. Box of 12 costs only a few cents. Be sure you get the genuine. Only Kotex itself is "like" Kotex.

INSTALLMENT XLII.

DEEP SEA FASHION.

As Carillon and Bengal watched the moon rise Bengal quoted softly: "Spin, spin, cloth, spin, Lachesis, twist, and Atropos, sever; In the shadow, year out, year in, The Silent Headsman waits forever!"

Carillon gave a little shudder. "Horrible, Bungle! I'm not worth it. There's never been the least excuse for me." "There must have been, else it wouldn't have happened. Some error in the molding of you. A flaw that the artificer considered it his duty to correct. Otherwise, it wouldn't have turned out as it did."

"I can't believe that. It would be too supremely egotistical." "There are the facts. Five male-factors scythed to steep the elixir for your cure."

Carillon shook her head. "I'm not of importance enough for that. The idea is too awful. Like Cleopatra warming her feet in the fresh blood of a slave."

"No; more like the wedding of a garden to give a good seed that had been partly blighted a chance to grow. Perhaps it was shown that there was no longer any hope of virtue in this planting for these others, but every hope for you in clean soil and with the blenish burned away. That is now for you to prove."

"I shall, with your help, dear," Carillon nestled closer. "Bungle..." "Sweetheart?" "Can't bear the thought of separation from you, even for two days. And I don't want to be married in Miami or any other such place. I want to sail away with you from here, aboard Gunga, to the beginning of the world."

Bengal smiled. "That would scarcely do. There are certain formalities to be observed." "That can be managed. Dr. Kennedy is a doctor of divinity. He must have married no end of people when he was a youth and missionary, so he ought to know how."

Bengal sat up suddenly. He also had rather dreaded the curious scrutiny of the many of Boyd's friends and acquaintances bound to be encountered at any Florida beach, and to whom Carillon's falling had been known. "That's so. I never thought about him. But this is a British possession, with the usual fashions of red tape."

"Rigel is under the American flag," Carillon reminded him, "and Gran is her duly papered master. We can run out a few miles and be married on the high seas."

"Now there's a thought. Why not? Save time and all the undesired publicity. Tie the knot in good old deep-sea fashion that can never slip. A howline in a night. Have you put it up to Granville?"

"Not yet, but I think he would welcome it with joy. He loathes a fuss. Under his crisp cut-and-driedness he's shy as the Prince of Wales."

Bengal leaned over and pushed the button of the steward's bell. When that present aid in time of need appeared he said, "My compliments to Mr. Boyd, and ask him he will be so kind as to come here."

Carillon gave her tinkling laugh. "Navy stuff, old dear!" Boyd received the astonishing proposal with a flutter of protest, then, as he considered it more carefully, hung in the wind for a moment to pay off on the right tack.

"After all, it ought to be shipshape and proper," he decided. "Outside the territorial limit we are a small and the shipmaster is vested with magisterial powers that include the right to marry as many people as he likes."

"To each other," Gertrude observed, she having followed him up and been invited to the conference as a party possibly concerned.

"Well, now, I wonder if that point is specified," Boyd said. "Anyhow, since we've got a duly licensed marryer aboard, all I need do is to draw up the marriage license, the certificate, and the settlement. My authority as shipmaster and legal guardian of my sister covers all that."

"Marriage settlement?" Bengal interrupted. "Those were my words. Although the family fortune was left unconditionally to me, I consider myself to be morally no more than Carillon's trustee. So, once safely moored in a safe anchorage, she gets her share."

He rose abruptly. "I'll go talk to John Kennedy about it and see what he thinks."

"Why not make it a foursome?" Carillon suggested. "I'd like nothing better; but my bride-elect has set her heart on having her show. Besides, it would give a sort of practical look to my part of it."

Gertrude nodded. "Gran is right. Too job-lot-ry. And it would break dad's heart not to prance down the aisle with me in tow."

Boyd, whose mind never strayed very far from the voyage that he had so long anticipated and for which his preparations had been so carefully and precisely made, said cheerfully: "This marriage would fit in perfectly with our plans. It gives Bengal plenty of time to make Colon by easy stages. After the ceremony I'll trade him for the ceremony I'll trade him for Carillon and Jansen for Gertrude and Jim. I'll do better. As Gertrude is worth two of Carillon for deep-sea duty, I'll chuck in another Swede. They've always been more for her than for me. She sings 'em Norse sagas to the guitar."

The Right Reverend Kennedy, finding no flaw in this arrangement and being rather pleased, perhaps, to keep his hand in, all was carried out as planned.

Waving farewell to Ragged Island, the two yachts ran well outside the territorial limit, whatever that may be, and there, with the nearest terra firma a mile and a half distant, a straight down Bengal and Carillon were as strongly secured to and for each other as a good seagoing job could make of it, which is saying a lot. Over their heads floated the cagion of their country, shedding benediction, and a great many small multi-colored flags running from the end of the bowsprit up over both trucks and down to the taffrail.

Though in theory and practice a dry ship, as became the floating home of scholars, the privileged steward yet found the makings of a wassail bowl, which Boyd did not gainsay. He knew when to be a blind-eyed sentry of Hubbard's blind tiger, somewhere in the pantry hold.

"Skool!" boomed Big Jansen, holding aloft his drinking horn, a deep draughted goblet.

"Skool to the Bengal, skool!" Carillon echoed, her flashing clear water eyes on her husband.

They drifted on their way in the soft violet night, and present the big tropical moon slipped up to see that all was well with them.

The ship's clock tinkled eight bells. "Starboard light, bright light. Port light, bright light," Jansen rumbled from forward. He smiled benignantly under his grizzled viking mustache.

He had been the first to steady Carillon's hands on the wheel when as a little girl he tried to teach her how to steer a true course. And now something told him that the lesson had been mastered.

"Bright lookout ahead," he crooned.

Bengal drew her closer. "Bright lookout ahead," his heart echoed. (The End.) (Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

GOOD MORNING, MR. GUMP— I HAVE PERSUADED MRS. ZANDER TO ASSIST ME— AS THE PATIENT MUST HAVE THE CONSTANT CARE AND ATTENTION OF A SKILLFUL NURSE— I AM SURE SHE WILL PROVE INVALUABLE—

LISTEN, DOC— THERE'S SOME MISTAKE— MRS. ZANDER DON'T KNOW ANYMORE ABOUT NURSING THAN I DO ABOUT PAINTING THE NORTH POLE— SHE WANTS TO HOLD HIS HAND AND TALK OF ORANGE BLOSSOMS AND WEDDING BELLS— SHE'S A WIDOW— AND HE'S A BILLIONAIRE— GET ME? IT'S NO USE HIRING A CAT TO NURSE A CANARY—

DURING THE WAR MRS. ZANDER PROVED TO BE THE MOST CAPABLE NURSE I HAD IN THE ENTIRE HOSPITAL— AND THE FACT THAT SHE KNOWS THE PATIENT ONLY INCREASES HER VALUE IN THIS CASE— I AM HERE TO CURE MY PATIENT— NOT TO LISTEN TO IDLE GOSSIP— AND SILLY PREJUDICE— I WILL ASK YOU TO KINDLY CEASE THIS UNWARRANTED INTERFERENCE OR I SHALL HOLD YOU PERSONALLY RESPONSIBLE FOR THE RESULT—

MOON MULLINS—HAIL! HAIL! THE GANG'S ALL HERE.

YOU HAVE A MR. MULLINS HERE UNDER OBSERVATION I BELIEVE, DOCTOR.

OH YES—YES THE FELLOW SEEMS PERFECTLY RATIONAL, SIR— COME WITH ME AND I WILL GIVE HIM HIS DISCHARGE PAPERS.

IT WAS CERTAINLY SWELL OF YOU TO GET ME OUT OF THIS BUGHOUSE LORD PLUSHBOTTOM.

YOU UNDERSTAND, OF COURSE, SIR, THAT YOUR FRIEND WAS NOT ACTING EXACTLY RATIONAL WHEN HE WAS BROUGHT HERE— AND WE CAN NOT BE TOO FAST— WE HOLD ALL SUSPICIOUS CASES FOR OBSERVATION.

YOU KNOW, GOVERNOR— ME AND THE REST OF THE NUTS WAS JUST SAYIN' THAT WE LIKE THIS GENT A LOT BETTER THAN OTHER GOOF THAT WAS IN HERE.

SOMEBODY'S STENOGRAPHER—You Gussed It, Boss!

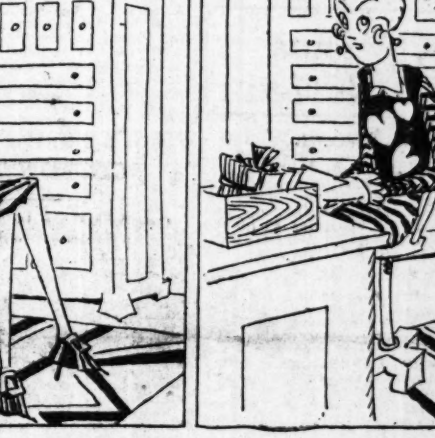

DARN! THEY'S GOT TO BE A CHANGE 'ROUND HERE! THE MORE BUSINESS I GOT THE LESS EVERYBODY WORKS.

GUESS I'LL GO OVER THOSE OLD LOVE LETTERS IN MY DESK!

WELL, WHAT ARE YOU DOING NOW?

NONE OF YOUR BUSINESS!

ATSWHAT! THOUGHT!

GASOLINE ALLEY—RACHEL IS IN CHARGE TODAY

WELL, WELL, JES LIKE OL' TIMES. MIS WALT IS GONE AWAY AN' I IS NOW MONIKER OF ALL I SURVEYS— FOR A COUPLE O' DAYS.

THINGS IS MORE LIKE THEY SHOULD BE. I HAS LEISURE TO READ THE PITCHAS IN THE WAPAH BEFO' ALL THE WORK IS DONE. IT SORTA HELPS THE MORNIN' TO PASS.

HEY, YOU! YOU GOT A BIG NERVE SNOOPIN' INTO MY KITCHEN! THIS AIN'T NO PUBLIC CONVEYANCE.

SO YOU DON'T APPRECIATE A LITTLE REGULAR SERVICE, HEH?

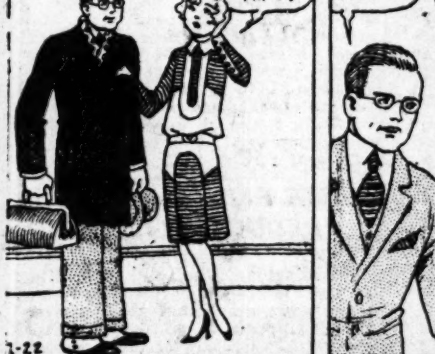

JES' BETWEEN YOU AN' ME THERE'S ONLY ONE THING I DOES APPRECIATE AN' THAT'S DISTANCE. NEX' TIME YOU SITUATE THAT MILK ON MY DOORSTEP AN' BEAT IT!

Winnie Winkle, The Breadwinner.

Pa Has Something on His Mind

WELL, WELL, WHO'S THE PATIENT, WINNIE??

IT'S FAYTHAW! A HEAVY BOOK FELL ON HIS HEAD AND WE'RE ALL DREADFULLY WORRIED ABOUT HIM!

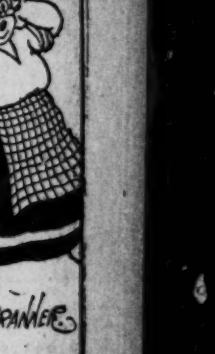

NOW JUST TAKE IT EASY, MR. WINKLE!

NOW HOW DO Y' THINK I CAN TALK BUSINESS WITH THIS TON OF BRICKS ON TOP OF MY HEAD? TAKE 'EM OFF MY HEAD, I TELL YE— TAKE 'EM OFF!!

THERE! DOES THAT FEEL ANY BETTER?

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE—

Bolshevism

OH, PAT, I SPOKE THIS SORT O' CLASSY SCHOOL IS ALL RIGHT FOR FOLKS WITH LOTS O' MONEY— BUT ME, I ALWAYS DID LIKE PUBLIC SCHOOL— COURSE I NEVER WENT TO PUBLIC SCHOOL MUCH BUT I SURE HAD A GOOD TIME WHEN I DID—

YUH DON'T HAVE TO BE RICH TO GO TO PUBLIC SCHOOL AN' YUH LEARN JUST AS MUCH— MORE MAYBE— AN' YUH MEET ALL SORTS O' KIDS— NOT JUST RICH PEOPLES KIDS, SEE?

I TELL YUH, PAT, I LIKE POOR FOLKS— NOTHIN' PUT ON WITH 'EM— THEY'RE JUST THEMSELVES, SEE? NOBODY TRYIN' TO HIGHTHAW YUH OR NOHIN'— YESSIR— IF I HAD MY WAY I'D PICK A PUBLIC SCHOOL EVERY TIME, I WOULD—

THE IDEA! THAT LITTLE WIP TROUBLEMAKER— IMAGINE HER SPREADING IDEAS LIKE THAT— WHY, IF PEOPLE EVER BELIEVED HER WHERE IN THE WORLD WOULD WE BE? I'LL HAVE TO PUT A STOP TO THAT IMMEDIATELY— SOCIALISM! THAT'S WHAT THAT LEADS TO!

OH DOCTOR! HOW IS HE? WHAT DO YOU THINK?

CONGRESS TO ACT ON BONUS LOANS

Washington, January 21.—(AP)—Early motion on legislation to authorize government loans to former service men on their bonus certificates was predicted by Chairman Green, of the house ways and means committee today after Director Hines, of the Veterans' bureau, had discussed the subject with committee to supplement the authority given banks to make loans on the certificates by including the Veterans' bureau and its regional offices.

President Coolidge is said to be in sympathy with the proposal and Chairman Smoot, of the senate finance committee, has introduced a bill to that end.

A number of house members have put in bills providing for Veterans' bureau loans, among them Representative Rogers, republican, Massachusetts, who is sponsoring one similar to the Smoot proposal and it is expected that after holding brief hearings the ways and means committee will either report one of them, or draft a composite measure.

Director Hines told the committee today that of 28,000 authorized banks 1,570 had to date reported loans.

Declaring that a majority of banks reporting loans apparently were restricting them to regular customers, the director said that many veterans had no banking connections, and that the question of identification was presenting a difficult obstacle.

Two Pittsburgh Election Heads Are Found Guilty

Pittsburgh, January 21.—(AP)—The May primary in Pittsburgh, subject of a senate investigation, came into the limelight again today when a criminal court jury found two election officers guilty of making false returns in a state legislative contest.

Those convicted of one charge were James A. Battles, judge of election in the tenth district of the twenty-second ward, and Miss Bess Camby, an inspector of election. Freed of all charges by a jury of eight women and four men were Mrs. Violet Lom'body and Mrs. Margaret Conner.

Battles and Miss Camby face sentences of from one to two years' imprisonment. Judge Miles I. Potter, of Snyder county, set Monday for sentencing them, but counsel for both indicated an effort would be made to obtain a new trial.

EX-BARNESVILLE MAN DIES IN PHILADELPHIA

New York, January 21.—(Special.) John R. Kendrick, 82, founder of the American Carpet and Upholstery Journal, and one of the leading American textile authorities, to whom congress appealed for data on numerous occasions, died tonight at his home in Philadelphia, according to a telephone message received in New York by one of his sons, J. Lawton Kendrick.

Mr. Kendrick was a grand-nephew of Dr. J. R. Kendrick, president of Yassier College, and was of New England and southern ancestry. Members of his immediate family coming from Georgia.

He moved to Philadelphia in 1882 and in the same year founded the American Carpet and Upholstery Journal, which has been published continuously since and still is owned by the Kendrick family.

Mr. Kendrick was one of the leading Baptists of Philadelphia and was a director in several banks and corporations.

He is survived by his widow, who was the second Mrs. Kendrick, his first wife dying a number of years ago, and five children, three of whom live in New York.

COURT ANNOUNCES SCOPE'S VERDICT IS TO BE FINAL

Nashville, Tenn., January 21.—(AP) Chief Justice Grafton Green, of the Tennessee supreme court, announced today that the court would not consider a motion to rehear the Scope case. The court last Saturday upheld the constitutionality of the Tennessee anti-evolution statute, and recommended that the state's attorney general enter a motion of nolle prosequi.

The motion has been entered by the state and the case dismissed, Justice Green said.

DR. HELBECK JENSEN DIES AT HOME HERE

Dr. Helbeck Jensen, 55, a dentist of 20 years' practice in Atlanta, died Friday night at the residence, 274 Richardson street, S. W., after an illness of three weeks.

Dr. Jensen was widely known in Atlanta, and during the years of his practice here had built an enviable reputation. His offices were at the corner of Whitehall and Mitchell streets.

Dr. Jensen is survived by his widow; a brother-in-law, J. B. Whitley; an aunt, Mrs. M. C. Hall; a cousin, Park H. Hall, of this city, and a cousin, Dan Hall, of Macon.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

SENATE DEBATES CASE OF WOODS

Washington, January 21.—(AP)—Opponents of confirmation of Cyrus E. Woods, of Pennsylvania, nominated by President Coolidge to be a member of the interstate commerce commission, failed today in their efforts to have the senate consider in the open.

A resolution proposing an "open executive session" was offered by Senator Neely, democrat, West Virginia, and was adopted 48 to 31. Senator Reed, republican, Pennsylvania, who is leading the fight for Woods, called attention, however, that the rules required a two-thirds vote.

Vice President Dawes agreed with this interpretation and Neely appealed from this decision, but the vice president was sustained, 45 to 32.

Both opponents and supporters of Woods agreed that these votes were not in the nature of tests on the question of confirmation itself. Neely and others were of the opinion that their chances of ultimate victory were lessened because the vote on the nomination would be in secret.

West Virginia and Kentucky are leading the fight to reject Woods' nomination on the ground that he was from a state which is vitally interested in the lake coal cargo rate case now before the interstate commerce commission which affects also the coal fields of the two so-called southern field coal states.

After the decision to keep the senate doors closed debate with the prospect that it might continue through several secret sessions on as many days.

Sunday School Value as Church Agency Stressed

Memphis, Tenn., January 21.—(AP)—Belief that the Sunday school is growing in influence as an evangelizing agency of the church, prevailed among delegates who concluded here today the first southern Baptist Sunday school conference.

The whole conference leads us to believe that the church now, better than ever before, will go forward like a mighty army for God's kingdom," Dr. J. J. Van Ness, secretary of the southern Baptist Sunday school board, summed up in the three-day program of general and departmental sessions.

A plea for evangelization of the rural communities in America was given expression at the closing session by the Rev. J. B. Rounds, of Oklahoma City. He believed that consolidation of rural churches in many instances would strengthen the denominational work.

"It is up to the Baptists to evangelize the rural sections," said Mr. Rounds. "Other denominations have virtually withdrawn from much of the country area, leaving the Baptists and holiness in possession."

Dr. A. J. Barton, Nashville, head of the cooperative program of the convention, urged upon pastors the value of adopting a definite objective for their standard of excellence. He believed that universal cooperation in such a program would double the annual contributions from churches of the denomination.

APPROPRIATION BILL IS PASSED BY HOUSE

Washington, January 21.—(AP)—A deficiency appropriation bill carrying $185,000,000 of which $175,000,000 would be for refunding illegally collected taxes, was passed by the house today and sent to the senate.

His Inexplicable 'Radio Mind' Astonishes Savants; Doesn't Believe in Spiritualism

KONRAD LEITNER, MIND READER, PHOTOGRAPHED AS HE SLIPPED A PENCIL IN A CIGARETTE CASE AT THE UNSPOKEN MENTAL COMMAND OF HIS "GUIDE." HE THEN SLIPPED IT INTO A POCKET IN A CAMERA CASE. NOT A WORD WAS SPOKEN.

BY BENTON J. STRONG.
(Copyright, 1927, by The Constitution.)
Cleveland, January 22.—Amongst the millions on this earth, there are always a few with uncanny, inexplicable powers.

Such a person is Konrad Leitner, "the man with the radio mind."

With a brain possible more sensitive than scientists' most delicate instruments, Leitner is able to take unspoken, mental commands from other persons and carry them out in the most minute detail.

He requires no assistance, no "fitting" environment nor any equipment in his demonstrations of "mind reading" or "mental telepathy." Anywhere, any time, he can tell what is in your head.

Because newspaper folk are skeptical beings, Leitner expressed willingness at the opening of an interview to demonstrate his inexplicable power. He looked around the room.

"My friends and I will leave the room," he said. "You hide something any place in the room or decide on something you want me to do. When I come in, give me mental commands to do it."

He left the room. The reporter conscripted the aid of a young lady, placed a pencil stub in her folded hand and called the telepathic back. His medium-sized, muscular body was striking as he rubbed his high forehead a moment, closed his eyes, grasped the reporter's hand and then walked straight to the young lady. His eyes opened and he took the pencil from her hand, closed his eyes, and then started delving into a pocket. There was a pack of cigarettes in it, but Leitner hesitated, sensing

RIVERS-HARBORS BILL SIGNED BY COOLIDGE

Washington, January 21.—President Coolidge today signed the rivers and harbors bill, carrying appropriations of more than $175,000,000 for waterway development throughout the country. Practically every state in the union is included in the measure. A major item in the bill is $12,000,000 for the Missouri river navigation development.

SHRINERS FIX FUNDS FOR CHILD CRIPPLES

Montgomery, Ala., January 21.—(AP)—Appropriations of $20,000 and $14,000, respectively, were made today for Shrine crippled children's hospitals at Greenville, S. C., and Lexington, Ky., respectively, by the national board of trustees of the hospitals in session here.

Acceptance of legacies consisting of land and other items given to the board in various legacies took up a large part of the day's session. The board may get through deliberations tonight, officials said.

No decisions concerning further expansion of the hospital system will be made before the convention of the imperial Shrine in Atlantic City this summer, they announced, although the hospitals now have a waiting list of 4,000 children. Cost of operating the ten hospitals for the present year will amount to $70,000 cash, while the five mobile units will require $40,000 each, they said.

'SHIPWRECK' IS TOPIC FOR SMITH SERMON

Declaring that a great many young people start life's voyage without knowing anything of the tremendous responsibilities, the opportunities and privileges of life, Glipsy Smith, Jr., spoke on "Shipwreck," to a packed audience Friday night at the Central Presbyterian church, corner Washington and Mitchell streets.

Three services will be held at the Central Presbyterian church Sunday, it was announced. Mr. Smith will speak at 11 o'clock and again at 7:45. His night subject will be, "What Must I Do To Be Saved?"

A mass meeting for men only will be held at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon and special music will be under the direction of Charles F. Allen, song leader in Mr. Smith's party.

In his sermon Friday night Rev. Smith took as his principal character the apostle Paul, using the story of the shipwreck suffered when the first Christian missionary was en route for Rome, a prisoner under guard of a centurion and the captain of the ship.

Paul, said the preacher, though a Jew, was a Roman citizen, and as such had the right to demand trial while he was made prisoner. He showed how Paul always made the most of his abilities and his circumstances, and how his character was the foundation which carried him safely through, not only the perils of the sea and shipwreck, but the more dangerous perils of life.

FRANK TINNEY ASKS FOR CUT IN ALIMONY

Minneapolis, N. Y., January 21.—(AP)—Frank Tinney, comedian, applied to the supreme court today for a reduction in the $200 a week alimony he is required to pay Mrs. Edna Tinney, who divorced him about a year ago. Hearing was set for Monday.

With the application was filed an affidavit of Dr. Leo J. Dretzka, of St. Mary's hospital, Detroit, where Tinney was a patient after a breakdown last October, saying the actor's recovery would be aided if he is relieved of financial worries.

Democrats Open Tax Reduction Battle Monday

Washington, January 21.—(AP)—The democratic move to pry open the tax reduction proposals will be initiated Monday in the house.

Representative Garrett, the minority leader, in making this announcement today, said he would start the ball rolling by taking the house floor to urge members to sign a petition, providing for a vote on the $335,000,000 tax reduction measure sponsored by Representative Garner, of Texas, ranking democrat on the ways and means committee.

If a majority of house members sign the petition, the committee can be discharged from jurisdiction over the bill if it is not reported within 15 days. It would then be in order to bring the measure up on the floor for a vote.
